Happy 50th birthday!

Pavilion's golden celebration

by Harry Walton

A LOVELY birthday cake is being cut today (Thursday) to mark the 50th anniversary of Weymouth Pavilion.

The landmark structure was opened in 1960 to replace the old Ritz Theatre which burnt down in a spectacular fire.

An original opening night suffered teething problems, so the official opening was held on July 15th, 1960, with a special civic performance headlined by star comedian Benny Hill.

Now Weymouth and Portland council is planning a series of events to mark the Pavilion's golden anniversary.

Today will see a special birthday cake cut and distributed to visitors during this afternoon by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Paul Kimber. There will also be a foyer exhibition of old Pavilion photographs.

Pavilion marketing manager Nicky Jenkins said: "We hope to follow up the Pavilion's birthday with a special nostalgia evening."

"The Pavilion Theatre has a lot of memories for a lot of people, so we want those people to have a chance to come along and share those memories."

"We hope they will bring with them everything from

One Not To Miss

ORIGINATING from Birmingham, JOHN DAVENPORT moved to Weymouth when he was just two-years-old with his family who owned the Bowleaze Beach café.

Now under his guidance, the 42 year-old is keen to promote the resort as a stunning holiday location for everyone from young couples to retired sunseekers.

Here the adrenalin junky talks about his love of the Swiss Alps, designs on improving Bowleaze Cove and why he won't be buying Prince Charles a pint in a hurry.

■ WHAT part of owning a seaside resort do you enjoy?

SEEING the many, many returning faces. I enjoy the variety of it all, I wouldn't like being stuck in an office looking at the square walls, there's so many different things going on around here.

■ WHAT do you enjoy about Weymouth?

I THINK it's just a great place to be - by the seaside. Everybody enjoys themselves; other people might disagree but I like the lack of trouble down here. My wife is from Walthamstow and I don't think I would want to live there and put up with that.

■ WHICH hobbies do you enjoy?

I SPEND most of my time snow skiing. I like the outdoors, cycling and clay shooting. I go to the Swiss alps, I love the adrenalin of skiing there and my brother lives there and so it's a cheap way of skiing. I've been there in the past five or six years and my sons enjoy it as well.

■ WHAT would you change about Weymouth?

I THINK what Weymouth could do with a place for surfing. In Weymouth there's nothing and I think they should build a surfing community down here.

■ WHAT changes have you seen in tourism over the last few years?

I THINK it's sporadic down here. Over the years parents haven't given a monkeys about taking the kids out of school but now the government says they're not allowed to. It gets pretty empty down here during the school term. I'm not sure if more people are coming down here or less. Sometimes our turnover suggests there are more people; I don't think the people here have the money, they seem really conscious of whether to spend.

■ WHAT type of holidaymaker do you find comes to Weymouth?

THERE'S a broad spectrum of people who come down here, from families returning each year to young couples to retired people; you just have to take a look about, its totally amazing.

■ WHAT do you think draws the holidaymakers here each year?

I think a lot of people know what Weymouth can be like; it's a peaceful town. There's a massive range of things for people to do if down for the week. The reasons people come down here are two fold: it's a place for people to come with good water access and no problems with parking and I think that helps enormously, without parking we are done for. A lot of people come here because their parents came here and their parents before them and its important having the camping around here, they like the variety of things the place has to offer.

■ WHICH three guests would you invite to the pub?

WELL, I'll tell you who I wouldn't invite: Gordon Brown, because I think he would bore me to death in five minutes while trying to explain to me what a mess he's got this country in. Prince Charles, because he is just a pointless person in society, we've all got our own views but he's an interfering person. I'm quite fond of the monarchy in general but not of him. And celebrity cooks because they're a far too opinionated bunch of know it alls and they just take it all a little to far, but I admire the Reux brothers. I think what they did to the UK, broadening everyone's culinary minds, is amazing.

■ WHAT three things would you take to a desert island?

I WOULD take my wife, children and some beer. I'm not sure if it would be in that order, but I'd take those three things!

Police hunt for attacker

A MAN grabbed a woman by the neck as she walked late at night in Weymouth.

The 18-year-old was pushed up against a wall in an alleyway that runs parallel to Ranelagh Road in the Park district at around 12.45am on July 3rd.

PC Jim Porritt, of Weymouth Police said: "The victim, from Weymouth, had been walking towards Brownlow Street at the time of this frightening attack.

"She kicked the offender and was able to run away." The attacker is white, around 30 years old, approximately five feet eight inches tall and of a medium build.

He had a brown goatee beard and was wearing white trainers and a blue hooded top.

PC Porritt said: "I am appealing for anyone who witnessed this assault and anyone with any information about the man responsible to contact me as soon as possible. I would also like to hear from anyone who remembers seeing a man running away from this area at that time. All calls will be treated in the strictest of confidence."

The victim was not injured as a result of the attack. Anyone able to help should call Dorset Police on 01305-222222 or the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800-555111.

photos to posters, old films, anything to illustrate 50 years of the Pavilion."

She added that later in the year on November 6th-7th there would be a special weekend of celebration.

She said: "Weymouth Pavilion Theatre Users Group is organising an evening of local amateur entertainment spanning 50 years of the building.

"This will include singers, actors, dancers and musicians with as many local groups taking part as we can get.

"The following night will be a celebration of Dorset talent with everyone from country music groups to belly-dancers.

"This weekend will be the grand finale of the Pavilion's birthday year and anyone who would like to take part, bring along memorabilia or get more information about events can contact me on 01305-838566."

Young chef is a winner despite painful injury

BLOODY victory was snatched from the jaws of injured defeat when James Wills won the Dorset Young Seafood Master Chef final.

All seemed lost for the 24-year-old sous chef from the Crab restaurant in Bournemouth when an accident right at the start of his Dorset Seafood Festival semi-final in Weymouth saw him cut the top off one of his fingers with a new mandolin slicer.

James said: "I have never bled so much in my life and getting medical treatment reduced the time I had to cook from 20 minutes to just 13 minutes."

He still managed to get through to the final where he cooked a fillet of turbot against Colin Upfold from Weymouth's Floods restaurant who prepared a fillet of brill.

Both young stars did so well that their excellence split the opinion of judges, celebrity chef Mark Hix and 2009 Master Chef winner Mat Follas who runs the Wild Garlic restaurant at Beaminster.

They eventually decided that James was the narrow winner, Mat saying that the sauces involved were "very good".

Mark Hix said: "We thought both dishes were fantastic and were the type of dish you would be proud to eat in a restaurant."

A delighted James said: "I must be the first seven fingered chef to win a competition like this."

"I cut the top of my finger off in the semi-final on a brand new mandolin, but I have managed to win the final. It still hasn't sunk in yet."

Among James' prizes were a plaque and work experience at Mark Hix's Oyster and Fish House restaurant in Lyme Regis where Mr Hix said he would be "a real asset".

Council merger moves closer

TWO council have taken another step towards merging into a partnership.

West Dorset district and Weymouth and Portland borough councils believe they can save millions of pounds through a merger into a single officer staffing structure but with both councils retaining their sovereignty.

Members of Weymouth and Portland's management committee backed a report on the partnership and business case which must now be approved by full council on July 22nd.

Proposals could save £8.8 million over five years by merging two officer structures into one to serve both councils, a decision which will affect the 850 staff currently employed by both authorities.

All 84 councillors in West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland will be retained to play a full role representing their respective communities.

Management chairman Councillor Geoff Petherick said: "As a council we really don't have any choice. We have to make this happen."

"There is a big reduction needed in costs. We also need to generate more income through the Pavilion, the harbour and the crematorium to help this."

"What matters here is that sovereignty is maintained for both councils. The way they will operate is to have two separate councils with a merging of management."

The meeting recommended full council to approve that the three members for a joint appointments panel to choose a chief executive for the partnership should be two Conservatives and one Liberal Democrat.

Councillor Kate Wheller said: "The important thing for me here is not the money we can save but the services we can safeguard, particularly services to the most vulnerable people in the borough."

Local film students offered £1,000 grant

BUDDING filmmakers in West Dorset are being offered a £1,000 step on the career ladder from the Bridport Film Society.

Young people hoping to become the next big British film director or screenwriter are being given the chance to apply for the film society's first ever Future Filmmaker University Grant award.

Any local university student currently reading film studies, film writing or film production (or planning to begin in 2010-11) is invited to apply for the £1,000 award. To apply you must reside in western Dorset, between Lyme Regis and Dorchester and West Bay and Crewkerne.

The society's committee said: "Bridport Film Society is one of Bridport's oldest community organisations and it is the right time for it to return something to the community.

"With the growing pressure on university funding and increasing fees, we want to encourage local young people to take their place in the British film industry."

Applications are available to download from the Bridport Film Society website (www.bridportfilmsociety.co.uk) and must be submitted prior to August 31st 2010.

Bridport Film Society's 46th season, featuring the best in world cinema, begins in September.

The new programme and applications will be available in August.

For further details, please contact Bridport Film Society at info@bridportfilmsociety.co.uk.

Police advise local motorists on security

POLICE in Dorset are urging motorists to secure their vehicles this summer in a bid to keep thefts from vehicles down in the county. Thefts from unattended motor vehicles have fallen by 18 per cent - 52 fewer victims of crime - in Dorset since the beginning of the financial year, April 1st 2010, compared to the same period last year.

However, patrolling officers have recently found cars and vans being left unattended without being locked and with valuable items, such as laptops and satellite navigations systems, on display and so police are issuing a reminder to motorists to secure their vehicles and empty them of any valuables.

As well as advising motorists, Dorset Police will be aiming to catch thieves through the use of overt and covert tactics in an operation aimed at preventing thefts from unattended motor vehicles across the county.

The operation, which runs throughout the summer, will focus on potentially vulnerable locations across Dorset including, beauty spot car parks, residential areas and industrial estates.

Highly-visible officers will focus on preventing thefts through the distribution of crime prevention advice, while undercover officers will be deployed to identify and arrest thieves.

Trap cars will also be deployed in a variety of locations and will be in use 24 hours-a-day.

Inspector Lance Cliff, of Dorset Police, said: "My message to members of the public is clear: work with us by locking your vehicle and emptying it of valuables.

"Taking this common sense approach, combined with our officers' efforts and the use of trap car technology will prevent thefts from vehicles in Dorset this summer."

Teenager injured after disagreement

A TEENAGER suffered neck and head wounds after a disagreement in Weymouth.

Police said they wanted two male members of the public who may have witnessed the incident to come forward.

The 17-year-old was hurt in Charles Street at around 4.30pm on Sunday, July 4th.

PC Jake Woodbridge, of Weymouth Police said: "I believe that the injured boy had been involved in a verbal disagreement shortly before he sustained wounds to his neck and head.

"It is not yet clear how he came to sustain these injuries and I am appealing to anyone who witnessed past at the time of this incident and I would like to speak with these men so that I can find out exactly what happened.

"I also understand that two men may have walked past at the time of this incident and I would like to speak with these men so that I can find out exactly what happened.

"Anyone with any information is urged to call me, in confidence, as soon as possible on 01305-22222 or the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800-555111."

Home safety advice

ADVICE on home safety including how to avoid falls was given at a special exhibition in Easton, Portland.

Dorset County Council's Partnership for Older Peoples' project brought together everyone from Dorset Fire and Rescue Service and Dorset NHS to the Anchor group which helps elderly people to stay in their own home.

Organiser Fiona Kent-Ledger said: "There was a good response here today and our visitors have asked a lot of questions.

"One of the biggest concerns people had was about how to put in and maintain a smoke detector in their home.

"People were also very appreciative of the Wayfinders stand we had which helped people identify and contact a variety of helpful services."

Council considers flood plans to protect Weymouth until 2126

by Harry Walton

A HIGHER Esplanade sea wall, a tidal barrier and raised quay walls could be the cornerstone of plans to guard Weymouth against flooding until 2126.

Sea levels could rise by as much as a metre over the next 116 years, members of Weymouth and Portland's management committee were told.

The ideas and others including stabilising harbour walls were backed as the preferred approach to defences by members.

That approach and other options will now get a more detailed appraisal to find the best way forward with work including geological and water surveys.

Environment spokesman Councillor Brendan Webster said Weymouth faced a growing threat from flooding, so surveys were vital because no decision on defences could be made without them.

Work could also include an assessment of how valuable Weymouth's listed buildings are and what is needed to protect them.

Officers warned that if a preferred action option was not chosen then town centre development would be "stifled" because the Environment Agency would continue to object to future development on flooding grounds.

Vice-chairman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "I strongly believe that taking this step now clarifies exactly what work goes ahead and what studies are undertaken.

"Let's make a decision by adopting a preferred strategy and stop going round and round in circles."

Councillor Roger Allen said some of the information presented was "extremely alarming" and there was clearly "a serious threat to Weymouth".

But he said he had concerns over the way the issue had been handled which he said effectively meant councillors were being urged to sign up to something "overnight" or face "the end of the world".

Members then backed the preferred flooding defence approach as a basis for developing flood risk policies and to allow for the future planning and development of Weymouth town centre.

Cyclist completes 1,000 mile mission for charity

by Paul Crompton

CUTS, bruises and saddle sores aside a Weymouth man is celebrating finishing a cycle trip from top to bottom of the UK to say thanks to the charity that helped his family.

Paul Vallance completed his 10 ½ day 1,000-mile mission from Land's End to John O'Groats to raise almost £2,000 for the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

The ex-marine, who lost his mother-in-law to breast cancer and his aunt to a brain tumour, wanted to use the cycle ride to thank everyone at the trust who had offered support during those times.

Mr Vallance said: "I chose the bike ride because I wanted to do something I knew would be a hard challenge. I'm not a keen cyclist but I have done it since I left school.

"I started training in January. It was an experience, it was difficult enough just doing the mileage needed to do it in 10 days, doing 90 miles a day, but when the weather turned on me it got very hard."

The first three days cycling through Devon &

Cornwall provided the worst terrain with lots of hills. By day four he was saddle sore and although the terrain was a lot flatter, the wind turned northerly which meant it was in his face for the rest of the trip.

Paul suffered a few injuries falling off his bike near Carlisle but he managed to get the bike fixed and continued with his challenge, which he completed at John O'Groats at 6.30pm on June 19th.

How did he celebrate? By undertaking the 17 hour drive back to Weymouth in time for his daughter's 4th birthday.

Paul would like to express sincere thanks to his friend Gary Copperthwaite who acted as support driver, cook, maid and agony aunt and his brother Gary Vallance for accompanying him during the last two very difficult days.

Paul said: "I'm glad that I did it, but even happier that it's over. Thank you to everyone who sponsored me and supported my challenge, especially Westham Cycles, Stuart Barnes Ltd & Dorset Tree Works".

Crowds enjoy Weymouth's taste of the sea

■ NO ONE went hungry at the Dorset Seafood Festival in Weymouth. One stall was offering was this delicious dish of garlic mussels seen here getting a stir from Weymouth's Crab House café owner Nigel Bloxham.

MORE than 40,000 people flocked to Weymouth and tucked into the town's third annual two-day Dorset Seafood Festival.

Quayside stalls, displays and demonstrations were packed with spectators enjoying the sunshine as they strolled along both sides of the harbour.

There was everything from how to fillet a fish to how to make a champagne cocktail as well as cooking demonstrations from stars such as Mark Hix and 2009 Masterchef winner Mat Follas who runs his Wild Garlic restaurant at Beaminster.

There was also plenty of in-the-water action from a cross harbour swim to the sight of a diver disappearing slowing under the waves clad in a huge old helmet and gear from another era.

Festival co-organisers Brian Cooper and Roger Dalton were delighted at the event's success and Mr Cooper said: "The crowds here were amazing. We had 53 stands and 26 of them were serving seafood, so people were spoilt for choice."

"There were dishes available from Thailand, France, Greece and Italy and we are delighted at how successful the festival has been, particularly as it benefits the Fishermen's Mission charity which provides emergency and welfare support to the nation's fishermen."

Mr Dalton said: "The festival has clearly been a success. Just look at the crowds!"

■ ONE of many popular cooking demonstrations was by celebrity chef Mark Hix (centre), who wowed spectators with his red mullet on toast and freshwater crayfish dishes.

■ THERE were plenty of bubble buyers at this Dorset Seafood Festival stand run by Pommery Champagne. The company was the main sponsor for the two-day event and corks were popping all the time

■ THERE were appreciative cheers when 2009 Masterchef winner Mat Follas announced the dish he was going to cook salt and pepper spider crab legs with a duck egg and rape seed mayonnaise. There was no shortage of eager tasters.

■ CHAMPAGNE and an oysters waited for contestants completing cross-harbour swim in Weymouth during the two-day Dorset Seafood Festival. The event was run by Weymouth and Portland Lions Club for main festival sponsors Pommery Champagne.

Ed Kirk from Weymouth was the first man home and he is pictured receiving his reward from Lions president David Addy. Lisa Worthington was the first woman home as water flew and crowds cheered.

■ HISTORY went beneath the waves in Weymouth when the Historical Diving Society gave a display at the festival. Spectators could look down from the quay wall and see what it was like to go diving 80 years ago.

Coping with the huge weight of diving gear was Paul Leach whose equipment included a 1930s Siebe Gorman brass and copper helmet.

■ IT was fresh, it was tasty....and it was raw! This was a fish tucker tasting at Weymouth's Dorset Seafood Festival and there were plenty of takers to sample what was on offer.

Nigel Bloxham of the Crab House Café, Weymouth, took people through everything from slipper limpets and raw mackerel to razor clams.

■ ANYONE keen to know how to fillet a fish had their questions answered as Duncan Lucas of Passionate About Fish gave a demonstration of just what it takes to fillet a variety of fish from mackerel and sardines to plaice, turbot and many more. He was so skilled that it took him less than 60 seconds to deal with a five pound fish.

Open 4 Business awards announced

AWARD categories and sponsors have been announced for the 2010 South and West Dorset Open 4 Business Awards.

The theme for this year's event will be World Class Business.

Project working group chairman Gareth Jones gave details of the event at a Weymouth and Portland Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Tourism's business breakfast at the Rendezvous in Weymouth.

Mr Jones said: "Open 4 Business 2010 will focus on preparing all businesses for World Class Business opportunities which may occur in the lead up to 2012."

"We have had a wonderful turnout this morning from businesses and the first two events that have been held so far this year have sold out."

"The events programme, organised in conjunction with Business Link, can be viewed on the Open 4 Business website www.o4business.co.uk

Nearly 80 business delegates attended which was the highest number that the chamber has ever had at one of the business breakfasts which are hosted by Lloyds TSB.

Among award categories are New Business, Jurassic Coast Business, South and West Dorset Business, Export Company, Business of the Year 2009 Customer Service, eBusiness, Technology and Innovation, Learning in the Workplace, Business of the year 2010 and Main Sponsor.

Application forms are now available on the website and the closing date for entries is Friday, September 10th.

The 2010 Open 4 Business festival will start on October 4th and the awards dinner will be held at Weymouth College on October 7th with events continuing until October 22nd.

Tributes following the death of civic society's former chairman

TRIBUTES have been paid to former Weymouth Civic Society chairman John Reeby who died recently.

He joined the Society soon after moving to Weymouth and, as an experienced town planner and gifted architect, he brought inspirational leadership when he became chairman.

Mr Reeby made great efforts to widen the appeal of the society particularly to younger people, introducing a Young Environmentalists Award through competitions in local schools.

A Practical Artistry Award was particularly focussed towards the students at the stone masonry school in Weymouth.

One outcome of this was the very fine and evocative sculpture standing in a prominent position on Portland heights, The Spirit of Weymouth. Another is the scheme of sculptured sea creatures that enliven the coastal protection works at Newton's Cove.

Mr Reeby ran the Weymouth Physically Handicapped and Able Bodied branch in the 1990s and Roger Fry, the father of one of its members, said: "At its high point, up to six physically disabled met with John and sometimes another able bodied person to socialise."

John also arranged the occasional lunch or evening dinner, often around Christmas, and he also hired a minibus for a trip to the Tate Gallery to the Picasso Exhibition which was very popular.

"As some of the members moved away or became too ill to attend, the club fizzled out, much to John's disappointment, as he from his late teens had an affinity with disabled youngsters."

Mr Reeby was Society chairman for eight years and, among his many successes, he was responsible for the project to have the ancient site of Weymouth's maypole recorded in the paving at the crossing of St.Mary Street and Bond Street.

His wife Margot died a few months ago. Only a few weeks before his own death Mr Reeby published his wife's book Dorset Spas: Their Hidden History.

Weymouth school children learn new skills at the beach

NEARLY 300 pupils from schools and special schools in the area descended on Weymouth for a two-day beach festival.

The first day saw 125 youngsters from primary schools at Portesham, Chickerell and from Weymouth schools at Southill and Beechcroft tackle a range of sporting and cultural activities as part of the Spirit of the Sea festival followed the next day by 150 children from various special schools.

There were chances to go sailing, kayaking, learn circus skills, play beach football, build sand castles and take part in dancing with a sea theme.

The event was backed by Weymouth and Portland council, the county council, Weymouth College and Active Dorset. Co-organiser Virginia Bailey said: "It has been fantastic, really, really good.

"The water sports were particularly popular because while many children live here they rarely go out on the water."

Community Forum offers dance mat sessions for mothers and toddlers

RESIDENTS are being encouraged to make use of free newly available dance mat sessions provided by Waterside Weymouth Community Forum.

The sessions at their Park district hall start tomorrow, Friday July 16th and continue on July 23rd and July 30th with a short summer break.

Sessions for mothers and toddlers will be 10-11am with a crèche while for over-18s only the session will be 2-3.30pm.

Chairman Ken Whatley said: "As things get going we hope to organise further sessions in the evenings and Saturday mornings, and during the school holidays. Some of these will have a small charge to cover the costs of staffing them. The more help we can get the more sessions we can run.

"All sessions are free and there is no need to book, but we do expect sessions to be busy so there may be a wait and we might have to put a booking system in at a later stage.

"We have an instructor and drinks etc will be available for a small cost. If anyone would like to help serve them or help out supervising the sessions please contact 01305-839579."

He added that there will be a community quiz on Saturday, July 17th for teams of four, price £3.50 including refreshments. People are welcome to bring their own drinks and there will be a £20 prize for the winning team.

The Forum will also be running a book and tombola stall at Greenhill on Sunday, July 18th and while there members will be cleaning and repairing the mosaic. All help will be appreciated.

Students take to the dance floor in Essentially Ballroom Celebration

THREE hundred West Dorset schoolchildren have tackled ballroom dancing at Weymouth Pavilion Ocean Room.

The students aged six to 19 years enjoyed the Essentially Ballroom Celebration offered to schools by the West Dorset School Sport Partnership.

Among dances tackled were the cha-cha, the waltz and the jive.

Organiser Dale Rhodes said: "It was a fantastic day with 16 different schools taking part.

"The children absolutely loved it. They were excited for weeks beforehand and they just couldn't stop dancing when they got here."

Apprentices wanted

NINE companies are waiting for young people to fill apprenticeship vacancies with an immediate start. The local area apprenticeship scheme is flourishing and, if anyone aged 16-24 years is interested in a career in business administration, then an apprenticeship could be for them.

The minimum wage for an apprentice is currently £95 a week which increases with the time spent in placement, apprentices working four and a half days per week with their placement company and half a day at Weymouth College.

They will complete a framework of qualifications such as an NVQ that supports the work they will carry out within their workplace, a technical certificate and functional skills in Maths, English & ICT.

Among organisations with business administration apprenticeship vacancies are Weymouth College, R.J.King Insurance, Changing Homes and Mortgages, Enterprise Connection, Popcorn Marketing, Lloyds Care and Dorset Police.

There are also two hairdressing apprenticeship vacancies with iRoka Salon & Spa in Weymouth and Designers Edge in Bridport.

Anyone who would like to know more about apprenticeships should call Weymouth College work-based Learning Team on 01305 208709.

Life with meaning

LIVING a Life with Meaning is the subject of a talk to be given to a meeting of West Dorset Humanist Group at the Old Ship Inn, Upwey, Weymouth, on July 29th from 7.45pm.

Persephone Arbour will talk about living a more fulfilling life and approaches to meaning.

Her life has been richly diverse as a therapist, a professional musician and as a writer and a celebrant at civil ceremonies.

The talk is free but there is a suggested donation of £2. A hearing loop is available if requested in advance. More details are available from westdorsethumanists@hotmail.com or by telephoning 07921-311518.

■ WEYMOUTH and Portland mayor Paul Kimber says farewell to Pelican captain Mike Forwood.

Bon voyage Pelican

WEYMOUTH has cheered and waved goodbye to its own tall ship, Pelican.

The vessel left port for two months to take part in a series of international tall ships races including ones off Belgium, Denmark, Norway and the UK.

Weymouth and Portland mayor Paul Kimber was among those who gathered for the send-off and he wished Pelican captain Mike Forwood and his crew all the very best of luck.

Mr Kimber said: "It is fantastic to have a tall ship based in Weymouth giving young people tremendous experience in life.

"Pelican is a credit to the town and we wish them every success in the races."

Mike Forwood said: "It is very exciting to be going off to the tall ship races where the average age of our crew members will be just 20, real training for life."

They were given a musical send-off by the Brass Tacks band while the nearby Nothe Fort fired a salute.

■ TS Pelican leaves Weymouth

Events village could operate for two years

AN Olympic events village could operate in Weymouth during 2011 as well as 2012.

The idea was suggested by Councillor Roger Allen whose Weymouth and Portland management committee colleagues agreed to consider it after approving the principle of developing an events village on the Pavilion peninsula.

Special projects spokesman Councillor Howard Legg said the area was perfectly suited to an events village and he supported the idea of getting an experienced event management company to deliver the project which the meeting agreed to.

Vice-chairman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "We have to get on with this and it is something which needs to be progressed with the advice of an appropriate event management company."

Members then agreed to Mr Allen's suggestion of having an events village not just in 2012 but in 2011 as well while bearing in mind the impact of lost revenue from staging the village on the Pavilion car park.

A report to the meeting detailed potential uses, attractions and activities which included mar-quees, music, artists, street theatre and other entertainment, food and drink, cultural Olympiad events, a viewing balloon-Weymouth Eye and a variety of natural exhibitions from the likes of the Natural History Museum and Jurassic Coast.

The meeting then voted to tender for an events management company with the option of an events village in 2011 as well as 2012.

History on show

PEOPLE stepped back more than three centuries when an exhibition and tour was staged of Weymouth's English Civil War battles and siege.

Dave Allan of Pike and Shot Events donned the uniform of a Royalist officer for a "show and tell" event part of which was held in Weymouth's Old Town Hall which was the Royalist headquarters for the siege in February 1645.

He said: "The three battles and a 19-day siege cost up to 2,000 lives from both sides.

"The Parliamentarians won and I was able to show visitors where fighting took place all over town."

Dave also brought along replica artefacts including a halberd, back and breastplate armour, a lobster pot helmet and even an original stone shot from the 15th century as well as a replica Civil War iron round shot.

He said: "My round shot is a replica but an original from the battles can still be seen stuck in a wall in Maiden Street above the women's toilet!

"People I showed round were fascinated by this because they didn't realise that Weymouth had so much history."

■ TAKE THAT! Dave Allan defends the main door of Weymouth Old Town hall.

■ SKANSKA'S Mike Pedley presents a £780 cheque to Westfield secondary department head Karen Bidwell to fund breakfast for nine pupils in the school's highly successful Nurture group.

Contractors' breakfast gift

WEYMOUTH relief road building company Skanska has presented a £780 cheque to Westfield Arts College nurture group.

Group leader Mark Holloway said: "The Key Stage 3-4 Nurture Group was set up at Westfield in September 2008.

"We cater for a wide variety of pupils, some with attachment disorders, social and emotional problems, behavioural difficulties or simply because they are not able to make the most of their potential at school at that particular time. We share breakfast together every day.

"This is a key time for us in the Nurture Group as pupils are able to talk about any worries or concerns they may have at home or at school and at the same time enjoy a healthy start to the day.

"Pupils learn to wait for their food, to share, to take turns talking and learn all the manners associated with eating together much like a large extended family. They even get the pleasure of taking turns to make the toast and to wash up!

"Thanks to kind donations from companies like Skanska we are able to continue to provide this valuable opportunity for our pupils."

Dazzling night to remember

TWO hundred students shone in the sunshine when Budmouth Technology College held its annual prom in Weymouth.

Stunning dresses vied with some stunning vehicles as a huge crowd of spectators cheered and whistled their approval at the college venue.

Delighted principal David Akers said: "Every year we order the weather for the Year 11s and every year we are lucky because we once again had beautiful weather.

"It was a fantastic evening and you can see by the fact that more than 500 people turned up to watch how much the prom is valued by family and friends. It is a huge event in everyone's life."

As arrivals posed for photographers before walking down a red carpet to receive drinks or flowers it was left to Year 11 leader Emily Hunter to sum up.

She said: "We have been planning this for such a long time now and we are so pleased that it has turned out to be such a special evening. They thoroughly deserve it and I am very proud of them."

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

New design business opens with award win

DYNAMIC new design and build business 'Outside The Box' kick-started their opening year by winning the award for best stand design at the 2010 Graduate Fashion Week Show at Earls Court, London last month.

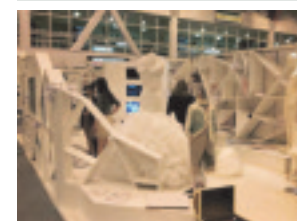

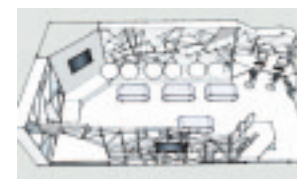

Working to a relatively open brief, the newly formed business created a bespoke modular stand, giving a clean finish by combination of striking lines and sleek design and it's versatility caught the eye of the London Judges. The stand was awarded with the best design prize after inspection by the panel checking the design style of stands from participating Universities and colleges from all over the country.

Outside The Box founder and director Will Thomson, (who's creative input is always at the heart of all works undertaken) has been working within the design industry for the past 10 years. In the past Will has been involved with other companies working for some big name clients including Toshiba, The Weymouth Sea Life Centre, National Institute of the Blind, and many others. Having now set up his own business, Will plans to use the skills and committed attitude he has developed to drive the enthusiasm he has into his own business.

The aim is to bring together all aspects of 3D space design from first paper or CAD sketches to the finished masterpiece. Whether you are trying to utilize an awkwardly shaped space in your house or wish to promote your company at a trade show with a bespoke and eye-catching exhibition stand, Outside The Box offer the complete package for you.

Next Month the company will be opening their stylish new studio in a World War 1 food canteen in Devon and will name it the 'Old Mess Hall Design Studio'.

Will and his team would be pleased to take your calls for any enquiry related to up and coming project ideas however big or small. Call 01297 443472 or 07525433893 and let the 'Outside the Box' thinking begin!

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Not so much fun with the horns

VUVUZELA horns at the World Cup may have been annoying but they are traditional at South African football matches where they were born out of a desire to have harmless fun.

The same cannot be said for the four young men who left a trail of shocked people in the wake of their speeding car in Weymouth from which they triggered an air horn next to unsuspecting pedestrians, cyclists and even fellow drivers.

They did it four times that I saw and were having a hilarious time as they carved their way through the King Street area.

One woman staggered sideways, the cyclist jumped while the driver victim turned his head sharply to his left in an instinctive reaction to see what the blaring noise was.

Any one of these incidents could have had serious consequences, but some people seemed to be trying to get their number.

Hopefully police will soon be getting them to sing a different tune, either through tracing the number or CCTV footage.

Bolder gulls get up close and personal

ALL he did was look away briefly from his meal and when he turned back a big chunk of it was missing.

The thief, a huge seagull, was still perched right in front of him on the small seafront table having severed part of the man's fish and chip lunch with all the skill of a surgeon.

His outraged response swiftly put the seagull to flight but it only dropped to the pavement where it wolfed down the chunk of battered fish it had filched.

The poor man clearly felt he might have said or done something during the incident to upset fellow diners because he apologised profusely, but it didn't look as if the seagull planned to apologise any time soon.

In fact it lurked nearby for a good while, keenly interested in seconds from such a promising source.

I've mentioned the depravations of seagulls before in this column including one incident where people were feeding them right next to signs asking them not to do so.

But this raid was indicative of what is a growing problem where birds are prepared to get up close and personal for the chance of a meal.

In the past fortnight I've seen a toddler nearly lose an ice cream to a swooping gull and people trying to eat chips on the Esplanade practically having to defend their meal from a circle of gulls just beyond their reach.

I don't know what the solution to the problem is except that the bolder the gulls get then the more likely it is that someone is going to get badly hurt.

Beware this man collecting for his own personal charity

THERE really is some serious human scum about on the streets of Weymouth and among the lowest of the low has to be this man.

He took advantage of people's kind hearts to skim their generosity to line his own pockets.

Two women on the Esplanade were among his victims as he came collecting for a charity which really did turn out to begin at home....his home.

By the time staff at the café where the women were drinking coffee could get out and warn them it was too late and the man had gone.

Café staff had seen him operate before and noticed that the t-shirt he was wearing to support his chosen "charity" was out of date and apparently had "08" on the back. He ran off as soon as he saw they were suspicious.

Beach patrol staff are keeping an eye out for him, not least because the charity he was using as a front was the hugely deserving Help For Heroes. You've been warned.

All of life on sale... all the time

ONLY 139 shopping days until Christmas, so perhaps it's not surprising that I've already seen adverts for Christmas clubs and outings.

This whole relentless crusade to part us from our money has taken some of the gloss off the festive season for me, but it pales into insignificance with the utter destruction in meaning for the word "sale".

Time was you used to see a sale poster up and it really caught the eye. Now what catches the eye - regardless of the time of year - is a street which doesn't have a sale sign up.

There are early, mid and end of season sales not to mention spring, summer, autumn and winter sales as if the two definitions are somehow unrelated!

There are "last day" sales which go on for weeks, "closing down" sales for shops which don't and "special" sales which aren't.

The only thing I haven't seen yet is a "sail sale" at a chandlery...and I'm sure that's only a matter of time.

Aqua King Construction

Aqua King Construction is a swimming pool installation specialist company based in South Somerset. Shane King has been involved in the swimming pool industry for 20 years. He is a Member of the Institute of Swimming Pool Engineers www.ispe.co.uk. His expertise is the installation of indoor and outdoor in ground swimming pools.

If you are considering either a liner or concrete pool, we recommend you arrange a free site visit to receive initial advice and cost estimate. If ancillary building work is required to complement the installation of a pool ie pool houses, pergolas, extra paving, retaining walls and general landscaping then Aqua King would be delighted to include a price for this work with their quotation. (Construction needs to be divided into five categories)

Liner Swimming Pools Aqua King constructs the shell for a liner pool from concrete blocks as this method offers greater long-term durability. A custom made liner is fitted to make the shell watertight.

Liners are available in a variety of colours and patterns.

Reinforced Concrete Pool A reinforced concrete pool is a luxury top end specification for a swimming pool as it is more expensive to construct and finish than a liner pool. The shell is built of steel reinforced concrete; waterproof render is applied and finished in tiles, natural stone or pool plaster.

Indoor Pools If an indoor pool is to be constructed in either an existing building or a new purpose built pool house, Aqua King can undertake the entire project including air handling and dehumidification.

Swimming Pool Covers Aqua King will advise on the wide variety of covers available. If the budget permits the installation of a fully automatic safety cover Aqua King is a recommend dealer of Dripool Automatic Safety Covers www.dripool.co.uk

Swimming Pool Design Aqua King draws upon its considerable experience to offer advice on pool design, size, position etc. However, we can quote from existing architect or garden design plans. Alternatively, we can be involved with these meetings from the start to assist with technical detail.

If you wish to commission a detailed pool specification plans, including all the technical detail, these can be drawn up at an extra cost. This is not normally necessary for an outdoor domestic pool.

If you already have a swimming pool and would like it refurbished, upgraded or need to replace equipment, Aqua King would be delighted to be of assistance.

The installation of a swimming pool is a specialist construction. Aqua King offers a consultation package, including the supply of pool equipment. This option suits the self builder or a client with other building contractors already working on site who require technical assistance.

Aqua King offers a pool maintenance and service contract including the supply of chemicals. Shane is fully qualified to advise on pool sanitation and water chemistry.

Swimming Pool Construction, Maintenance and Service

With 20 years experience, Aqua King are pleased to offer a fully comprehensive service of all aspects of pool building and maintenance.

Sherborne Turf

Sherborne Turf is a local company supplying trade and retail customers with quality seeded lawn turf and associated products. Grown without netting, the turf is harvested from our own fields surrounding the historic town of Sherborne, and delivered using our own fleet of delivery vehicles. Turf is cut to order, so you can be sure it is fresh, and being a local company, low 'turf miles' mean our product is green in more ways than one!

In addition to turf, we also supply a full range of topsoils, composts and mulches, available for delivery either loose or in dumpy bags. Top-dressing, loam, fertiliser and seeds are also stocked, along with landscape accessories such as rakes, biodegradable stakes, geo-textile membranes, sprinklers, irrigators and spinners.

For more detailed information on all of our products, why not visit our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk. It is packed with product descriptions, turf laying guidelines & technical advice, and even has an interactive calculator to work out the quantity of turf or topsoil required for a given area.

At Sherborne Turf, we always want our customers to be delighted with their purchase, and our after-sales service includes advice and assistance as required. All of the team have technical knowledge, and are contactable on 01935 850388 or freephone 0800 178 0870. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Groves Nurseries

CW Groves & Son Ltd, is not your usual garden centre, it is in fact a nursery that grows thousands of plants that are sold through its garden centre, the Groves family have been growing and selling plants for six generations, this experience of horticultural knowledge shows through the diversity of plant range to be found in their Bridport centre, they cater very much for the amateur gardener as well as the experienced one and have staff with a wealth of gardening knowledge on hand to help.

It is very important to get the balance right in the garden and it has become increasingly obvious over the last few years that people are realising that the garden should not only provide a feast for the eye, but also a feast for the tummy and we have noticed a huge increase in the sale of our vegetable seed and plants, most of these plants are grown in our own nurseries and we have over the years learnt what varieties will grow the best in this area and we are confident when we place these plants on our sales benches.

Tomato plants are very popular and it seems that most households grow them these days, there is always room for a growbag in the corner of your garden, yard or patio. You may prefer the upright standard varieties like MoneyMaker Alicante or the hybrid Shirley, that we recommend or you may prefer the sweet cherry sort like Gardeners Delight or the yellow Sungold, some folk even put them in hanging baskets in which case you would need the variety Tumbler. We also recommend an outdoor variety called Ferline, which has some resistance against potato blight, but make sure the frost has gone before planting out. Not every one likes the hustle and bustle of a garden centre this time of year, in which case we cater for that also, you can visit our Beaminster branch called Little Groves, this is a pretty smaller nursery, with a garden essentials shop attached, it also grows much of its own plants specializing in herbs and aromatic plants as well as general nursery stock.

Finally, gardens are to be enjoyed and it doesn't all have to be hard work, barbecues and garden furniture take up a large proportion of our shop this time of year and we cherry pick the best products from a number of different suppliers, again, to the taste of the Dorset Gardener.

Little Groves Nursery

Over at Little Groves, the nursery is currently packed with all sorts of usual and unusual herbs. Summer salads can be brightened up with edible flowers such as Pineapple Sage, Chicory, Calendula and Heartease, or made funky with herbs such as Red Veined Sorrel, Salad Burnet or Amaranth. You can make great seasonings for your BBQ's with herbs such as Thyme (Green, Lemon or Orange!), Rosemary, Basil, Vietnamese Coriander, Sage and Fennel. And of course herbs can be great in Cocktails and Summer drinks, whether it's Mint for your Mojitos, Borage flowers for your Pimms or Strawberry Spinach for your punch! Don't worry if you're not sure what you're doing with herbs - we're happy to help!

Over 1,000 different species found Weymouth reserves

MORE than 1,000 different species of wildlife exist at Weymouth's Radipole Lake and Lodmoor reserves.

The Weymouth Wetlands sites are managed by the RSPB which said their latest photo and video footage showed there was a lot more to the attractions than the bird for which they are famous.

Some marvelous pictures of mammals are being used to create a gallery at the Radipole Lake visitor centre in the Swannery car park and staff also hope to show remote camera footage there soon.

Weymouth Wetlands manager Nick Tomlinson said: "The B in our name stands for Birds but our work covers all kinds of wildlife and we try to manage the habitats here to benefit the widest range of species.

"This is the International Year of Biodiversity and that chimes perfectly with our efforts, through a major restoration project,

by Harry Walton

to enhance and protect the whole ecosystem of the Weymouth Wetlands from the smallest bug to the birds and the bees and everything in between."

Wetlands information officer Luke Phillips said: "In order to better understand how wildlife uses our reserves, we have been using remote cameras to capture animals doing what comes naturally. Our latest footage includes roe deer, foxes and even an otter, captured by our infra-red cameras, marking its territory by pooing on a block!

"We've also photographed weasels and water voles, wood mice and bats. We've recorded at least six different species of bats, including the extremely rare Nathusius's pipistrelle and there's evidence of badgers on site as well. Smaller mammals, such as wood and harvest mice make their homes here too."

Just over half work to revitalise the site is now complete and when the project is finished it will have created or restored about six kilometres of ditches and over a hectare of open water.

These are the biggest changes the reserve has seen since the RSPB took it over in the mid-1970s and will create the best mosaic of wetland habitats the site has had in living memory.

Natural England is funding the work, with £185,000 for the first two phases, which will also improve public access to the site, and another £500,000 for further restoration and maintenance over the next 10 years.

Those interested in viewing the latest Wetlands footage or who want to look for the animals themselves should contact call in at the centre or contact it on 01305-778313.

Weymouth Carnival organisers expect best ever procession

by Harry Walton

■ Weymouth Carnival procession organiser Shaun Hennessy

PLANS for Weymouth Carnival's grand procession are going so well that the event is heading towards its one hundredth float entry.

Shaun Hennessy, who is organising the procession said it was a fantastic response.

He added: "I have been involved with carnival for nearly 20 years and we have never had a procession response like 2010.

"We are particularly pleased at the large number of non-motorised floats which are being entered by groups such as the South Dorset Guide Fellowship which has up to 300 youngsters taking part in their entry to celebrate 100 years of guiding in Dorset."

Mr Hennessy said that one thing organizers did need was more musical entrants such as marching bands, majorettes and other groups.

as they are entertaining."

Weymouth's biggest day of the year, which is being organised by the Rotary Clubs of Weymouth, will be jam packed with top attractions including the world famous Red Arrows, the Red Devils parachute display team and a special appearance of the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.

Mr Hennessy said: "We are very lucky because their appearance over Weymouth will be the only southern England flight they do this year."

Crowds of more than 100,000 people can also look forward to a host of stalls, sideshows, competitions and attractions including the traditional carnival draw for a car.

He added: "This is because we want Weymouth Carnival 2010 to be the loudest and the best.

"We are also interested in getting street entertainers to move through the procession and to entertain crowds while they are waiting for floats to arrive.

"They can be anything from jugglers to fire eaters, anything as long

Oliver almost ready for opening night

■ CONSIDER YOURSELF: Josh Brunell (Dodger), Luke Strong (Oliver), Toby Leigh (Oliver) and Joseph Watters (Dodger), and below the cast of Oliver - Claire Bool, Paul Brewster, Naomi Riglar, Karen Pankhurst, John Mullins, Geoff King, Martin Fiddik and Anna-Maria Geare

WEYMOUTH Operatic Society is working flat out to get ready for its musical production of Oliver from July 20th-24th.

The event, directed and choreographed by Julie Storey, will enjoy a five-night run at Weymouth Pavilion.

The group is a hive of activity ahead of the show with musical numbers being fine tuned and a lot of hard work being put in on costumes.

All tickets are £12 with Saturday matinee tickets at a special price of £10.

Summer Holidays 2010

Summer is just around the corner. The schools will soon be breaking up and thousands of tourists will be visiting our towns and villages.

To celebrate the arrival of summer and to promote one of the most popular tourism areas in the South West, we are producing an 8-page Summer Holidays supplement in our five weekly publications in West Dorset. With dedicated sections on everything from events and attractions, this is the perfect opportunity to promote your business.

This superb, full-colour guide to enjoying summer to the full will be published the week commencing 2nd August and will include four insertions throughout the month. We welcome readers offers and competitions. The Summer Holidays supplement will appear in the following five free weekly titles out every Wednesday:

View from Weymouth & Portland
View from Lyme Regis & Charmouth

The Summer Holidays pull-out supplement offers businesses a unique opportunity to reach a significant readership with over 23,500 copies being distributed throughout West Dorset.

View from titles are available at over 500 pick-up points around the local area, including leading supermarkets and Tourist Information Centres.

The supplement will also be uploaded on to our website (www.viewfromonline.co.uk) which currently receives over 350,000 hits every month with the added advantage that it is accessible for a whole year. Other quality supplements produced by us can be seen on the website.

We are offering very competitive rates to advertise in this supplement with the option of editorial/photographs on your business. See attached a range of sizes and prices. Spaces will be reserved on a first come, first served basis.

Creature Comforts

Creature Comforts, your local grooming salon for pets, can be found on your way out of town, towards the Medical Centre, just before Dreadnaught Trading Estate. Summer Offer! 10% off a Full Groom Service! Glands + Nails appointment not always necessary

Celebrate with Creature Comforts Grooming Service on their first year of business in their purpose built grooming salon for dogs and cats, located on the edge of Bridport Town Centre. Although established many years ago, Bee Toon decided to swap her mobile service for a salon on the edge of town with easy access and parking. Little did she realise that after starting alone and only one year later her business would grow so quickly, and now boast a team of 4 qualified staff.

Our staff is all qualified, ranging from Advanced Canine Psychology, Veterinary Nursing, Advanced Grooming and Animal Care, not to mention years of experience working with a variety of animals.

On arrival, a warm welcome awaits you from the newly appointed receptionist, along with a waiting room where tea or coffee is available, our pet portrait album to browse or magazines with plenty of pet and grooming advice.

Our success is thanks to happy loyal customers and pets who continue to promote our service through personal recommendations of a quality service and value for money prices, and return on a regular basis to pamper their pets and experience our pet makeover service.

Our sister company, Creature Comforts Photography Service is available for your pets portrait to be mounted on photo, canvas, mouse mats or any other product of your choice. We also offer FREE coverage of your local event and can be contacted to book our service for your local charity event or show.

In return for our appreciation we are giving away 10% to old and new customers who book a treatment during the month of July. Where we will look forward to meeting your requirements.

Joint business partners TJ and Shirley would like to make everyone in West Dorset aware that they are proud to regard themselves as one of the last standing 'traditional style' cafés in the area.

You can pop into Café Royal in Tannery Road, Bridport for a slap up all day Breakfast or freshly battered cod and chips at any hour of the day and feel completely relaxed, be yourself and watch the world go by.

TJ joined up with Shirley 7 years ago at the helm of the business with a vision to keep the retro feel of the business as close to that you would have experienced in café/diners in the 50's and 60's. They have moved with the times somewhat but feel that with more and more modern, downsized up-market outlets opening in towns all over, it will be a shame to loose the traditional style café altogether.

The many large windows flood plenty of sunlight into this airy, spacious café that boasts additional features in a Juke Box, Pool Table and children's play pen. It is large enough to cater for parties of 30-40 people and often does when coaches stop in the station opposite.

Children's parties have also been held at Café Royal as they love the kid's meals for £2 and there is a large penny sweet counter that the kids are very fond of.

For more information call TJ or Shirley on 01308 422012 or just pop by to enjoy the relaxed atmosphere at the café Royal.

Beautiful fashion boutique for "real" women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brain-child of proprietor Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were bemoaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30".

Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Sempre Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few.

Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

website where you will be able to browse new Autumn/Winter collections and be made aware of seasonal promotions and events.

Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accessories whatever your size.

If you have not yet visited us, please call in for a warm welcome.

Surf and skate gear heaven!

Get On Board is a surf and skate gear shop which supplies popular brands of clothing such as Quiksilver, Roxy, Ripcurl, Billabong, O'Neill, Protest, Saltrock, and Weird Fish. Also, Dirty Dog sunglasses, DC trainers and the ever popular and versatile Buff,

Lots of exciting gifts and essentials for all....wallets, watches, belts, tee-shirts, hoodies, boxershorts, beanies, caps, handbags, rucksacks and much more.

An extensive supply of bikinis, board-shorts and wetsuits are also in stock.

In addition we stock skateboards, to suit a range of standards, with brand names Zoo York, Creature, Flip, Baker and Alien Workshop together with all the necessary accessories, including helmets, for skateboarders and BMX riders.

Please come and pay us a visit! Open 9.30 to 1730 Monday to Saturday.

A shop that mixes the work of Dorset designers with internationally famous names is the latest addition to Dorchester's buoyant retail scene.

Eureka is the second retail venture by entrepreneur Tim Altham, whose business until now has been in supplying quality retailers with stylish stationery and fashion accessories. The first Eureka store opened in September 2009 in Swanage.

Products at the Dorchester store include stationery and accessories from Designers Guild, beauty products from Drenched and Glamourflage in Australia, TOKYObay watches from San Francisco, stationery and ceramics from Cath Kidston and Nora jewellery from Norway (exclusive to Eureka).

Designers from Dorset are responsible for the shop's lively spread of greeting cards and wrappings, as well as the range of contemporary eco bags which, says Tim, are leading the field in colour and design.

He said: "We have produced the most ethical range of eco bags on the market. The content is entirely recycled, from old plastic bottles, and no one else is doing that with folding eco bags."

Eureka, Tim says, sets out to offer "an infusion of colour and design, across a whole range of products – as many as possible from Dorset designers."

"We want to support local artists and designers, and we are always happy to talk to them about their ideas."

Great food to eat in or takeaway!

The Horse with the Red Umbrella is located opposite the Dorset County Museum it has a welcoming ambience and serves fantastic homemade cakes, a large selection of sandwiches and also a large selection of hot and cold beverages which can be enjoyed either sat in or to take away. For early birds visiting the town for their shopping or if you are on your way to work why not pop in to the Tearoom and enjoy one of their Breakfasts to kick start your day.

Brand new kids clothing range at Wellworths

Wellworths of Dorchester are excited to announce the arrival of their brand new children's clothing range, which is exclusive to the store for Dorchester and the surrounding area.

This summer collection is trendy, vibrant and colourful, and is designed for boys and girls aged 0 – 5. It consists of wardrobe essentials such as shorts, t-shirts, jeans, cargo trousers, leggings, pretty summer dresses, shirts, and a large selection of accessories and nightwear. Mums and Dads will also find everything they need for babies, from baby grows to bibs.

All clothes are outstanding quality and parents will be delighted by the fact that they are so reasonably priced. Where else will you find well-made, fashionable and affordable children's clothing on your doorstep?

Pop in today to see the new range and let them know what you think. Manager, Claire Robertson, is proud of the community nature of the store, which is now in its second successful year of trading, and welcomes your comments. If you think there is anything you would like to see in the range or just want to say how pleased you are with your purchases, feel free to tell a member of Wellworths friendly staff or post your views in the in store suggestion box.

Claire and her team look forward to welcoming you!

Delicious dining inside and out

NAPPER'S Mite is a fully licensed restaurant coffee shop, it offers a varied menu with daily specials. The garden and courtyard seating is very popular along with the restaurant and bar. New for this summer, Napper's Mite are offering Smoothies and Milk shakes from Eden Delicious. Cream teas are available alternatively Napper's Mite offer a selection cakes for those of you with a sweet tooth.

There are four areas where you can eat with old world charm, two inside, a central section in a covered courtyard and a very pleasant garden out back. The small restaurant/wine bar is excellent for morning coffees right through to a full varied lunch menu. Ideal for families, you can choose from a range of light lunchtime snacks such as baguettes, sandwiches and jacket potatoes. Their hot chocolate with whippy cream and a flake is highly recommended.

Latest review of Napper's Mite on Google maps by Diane says, "We popped in here for lunch whilst on holiday in October. My husband, 16 month old child and I. Service was excellent and I had the best omelette that I have ever had. Highly recommend".

I should "pick" a fishy for my little dishy...

Billy the fish has been established in Dorchester for some time now and the people of the area have recognised his business as two sections, a Fish Monger on one side and quirky Sea Food restaurant on the other.

Recently Billy the Proprietor decided to combine the two and incorporate a significant fresh fish counter into the restaurant layout, giving his customers the chance to visually select their choice of fish and sit by and watch as it is prepared and cooked to their liking.

For example, why not pick and mix a fresh fish platter made up of prawns, scallops, calamari and lobster to be freshly prepared and served for a group of you to share.

You do not have to eat your pickings in the restaurant, the fresh fish counter operates as any other fish monger does and gives it's customers the opportunity to buy 'fruits de mer' over the counter and do the cooking bit at home or on the bbq.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. Clockhouse Jewellers - A Gem Of A Family Business Clockhouse Jewellers has been established in Dorchester since 1963 and is the oldest family run jewellers in the town. It is run by Fred Burgess and his wife Anne, along with his son Jonathan and daughter Clara. The business has two main elements of specialist repair and quality jewellery sales.

Fred and Jonathan focus on in house repair and reconditioning of all antique clocks. Their expert knowledge and experience means that you can trust them to ensure that your favourite clock or treasured family heirloom will be as good as new. You can also bring your watches into the shop for repair, battery change or a new strap. Clockhouse Jewellers also offers a cleaning service for clocks and all kinds of jewellery.

The retail side of the business is looked after by Anne and Clara, and also benefits from the experience and knowledge for some enthusiastic experts. Between them they will help you find the perfect piece. Quality is top priority, and with new and antique jewellery on display you are bound to find exactly what you are looking for. If you are looking for a truly individual piece they can make it for you, including gem set and wedding rings. The shop boasts watches by Rolex, Omega and Vacheron many of which are reconditioned so are below the retail price; as well as rings for all occasions, necklaces, bracelets, clocks, barometers and much more.

Anne Burgess herself specialises in pearls also semi precious stone necklaces, and is happy to discuss your ideas for a perfect individual piece. She also offers a rethreading service for pearl and bead necklaces. The shop also buys jewellery and gold at fair prices you sometimes will not get from national advertisers.

Tea and history anyone?

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3,000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes.

Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and walled up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom.

This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tearoom, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House. The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day and service is a high priority. The staff at the Oakroom pride themselves on their high levels of customer service, creating a warm, homely atmosphere where you can enjoy lovely lunches and of course, Dorset clotted cream teas.

Countdown to Camp Bestival

ELLIE GOULDING

IT'S NOT long to go now until Dorset's top music festival, taking place at Lulworth Castle on Dorset's Jurassic Coast from July 30th - August 1st. This year's Camp Bestival features Friendly Fires, Madness, Calvin Harris, George Clinton & Parliament/Funkadelic, Billy Bragg, The Fall and Lee Scratch Perry. There will also be a very special show for the children at this year's event. A starry-eyed Rob da Bank, Camp Bestival curator, says: "Anyone with a child younger than 4 or 5 will know the story of The Gruffalo... in fact, most of my mates without kids know it better than Dickens or Shakespeare, which is kind of worrying yet also proof that we needed this show hot off Broadway to come to the Camp!"

"With two shows over the weekend, no-one need miss it; this will be a highlight I'm sure. Add in the hottest tipped artist of 2010 Ellie Goulding, my old mates Zero 7 DJing, Tinie Tempah rippin' it up and ukuleles, folksy beards and rave synthesisers it's all shaping up rather nicely."

There are plenty of jaw-droppingly good live acts who will be joining the party including perfect precision pop from David E. Sugar, chill wavers Summer Camp, surfer-blues three-piece The Martin Harley Band, chip-tune warrior Unicorn Kid, teenage tearaway Charli XCX, award winning multi-instrumentalist Jim Moray, post-folksters Spindle & Wit, alternative soul from Woon, the inimitable Dulwich Ukulele Club, meditative riffing from Flux Ache, boy-girl dream pop duo Visions of Trees, the Isle of Wight's Cooly Haste and nu school disco crew Soft Rocks.

Putting the needle to the records will be a cavalcade of selectors including Zero 7 who will be playing a soul and boogie set, the boundary busting Balearic Brothers, Dub Pistols kingpin Barry Ashworth, Sunday Best's very own Fear of Theydon and proto-house spinner Tosh Ohta.

Tickets are flying for Camp Bestival so make sure you get it together and come and join in the fun at a fairytale castle by the sea for a weekend of magical mayhem and family fun! For all the latest news remember to keep checking www.campbestival.net

Chordelia return to Lyme with 30s cabaret show

RENOVED Scottish performing group Company Chordelia is making a return visit to Lyme Regis at the end of July with their new show. Having been a hit in March with their show Les Amoureux, the company is returning to the Marine Theatre with Cabaret Chordelia, a cabaret performance based around the cabaret scene of early 30's Berlin.

Cabaret Chordelia is an erotically-charged and witty reinterpretation of the cabaret of the 1930's, sumptuous, sensual and mischievous while remaining true to cabaret style - a darkly profound and intimate blend of song and dance. Baritone Damien Thantrey is joined by piano accompaniment, and high calibre dancers, including artistic director Kally Lloyd-Jones, bringing the music alive and exploring its emotional depth. The performance is fresh and forward-thinking while winking at traditional forms of cabaret.

Cabaret Chordelia is directed and choreographed by Chordelia's Artistic Director, Kally Lloyd-Jones. She recently directed Katya Kabanova for Scottish Opera and was Movement Director/Choreographer for Scottish Opera as well as the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama. The cast is made up of Kally Lloyd-Jones, Kimberley Lawrie, Kirsty

Pollock and opera singer, Damien Thantrey, who is currently performing in A Little Night Music at the Théâtre du Châtelet, Paris and recently sang in Scottish Opera's Die Fledermaus and A Night at the Chinese Opera.

Marine Theatre Creative Director Ian Stephens said: "I loved the Company's performance of Les Amoureux; it was quite unlike anything we've had here at the Marine Theatre. The Company themselves were a delight to work with, and totally committed to making their visit to Lyme Regis as successful as possible. So when we were having a drink in the bar afterwards, I started talking to Kally, Chordelia's Director, about a return visit only to find that she was thinking along the same lines. The opportunity to have them showcase their Edinburgh production here at the Marine Theatre was too good for either of us to resist. Cabaret in Berlin in the thirties was utterly distinctive and intoxicating (think Cabaret the musical), so to place a range of song and dance in that context sounds fabulous."

I'm really looking forward to seeing Chordelia back in the Theatre. As the last night of their run is my last night as Creative Director here, it will be that little bit more special for me."

Cabaret Chordelia is at 8pm each evening, from Sunday 18th to Saturday, July 24th at the Marine Theatre. Tickets cost £8 (Sunday - Tuesday), £10 (Wednesday - Thursday) and £12 (Friday - Saturday) available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138, online at www.marinetheatre.org.uk.

A fresh take on a Shakespeare classic

MIRACLE Theatre Company brings their a fresh adaptation of Shakespeare's timeless love story, Romeo and Juliet, to Bridport on Thursday (July 15th).

But this is no ordinary retelling of a classic tale. Known for its richly inventive and physical theatre, Miracle creates a totally original world where senses soar and humour is found in unexpected places.

Shakespeare's lovers inhabit a war-torn place where society is fiercely divided and everyone around them is blinded by conflict and hatred.

Taking place on the Millennium Green outside Bridport Council Office, the show promises to be a real summer treat for audiences of all ages. An open air theatre show is a real experience, getting up and close to the professional actors as they perform one of Shakespeare's most loved plays.

As this is an outdoor show, you should follow the Five Golden Rules of Open Air Theatre:

- Arrive early: pick a great spot and enjoy the surroundings

- Come prepared: stay comfy with warm woolies, blankets (and waterproofs!)
- Bring your own seat: you'll need a chair or blanket
- Grab a torch: so you don't get lost in the dark!
- And don't forget your picnic! (Including tipples of choice)

Miracle Theatre Company's production of Romeo and Juliet takes place at 7.30pm on Thursday, July 15th at Millennium Green, Mountfield, DT6 3JP.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01308 424204 priced £10, £9 for supporters, £6 for concessions, £5 or £28 for a family ticket.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

A Poem for Older Folks

A row of bottles on my shelf
Caused me to analyze myself.
One yellow pill I have to pop
Goes to my heart so it won't stop.
A little white one that I take
Goes to my hands so they won't shake.
The blue ones that I use a lot
Tell me I'm happy when I'm not.
The purple pill goes to my brain
And tells me that I have no pain.
The capsules tell me not to wheeze
Or cough or choke or even sneeze.
The red ones, smallest of them all
Go to my blood so I won't fall.
The orange ones, very big and bright
Prevent my leg cramps in the night.
Such an array of brilliant pills
Helping to cure all kinds of ills.
But what I'd really like to know...
Is what tells each one where to go!

OF course, whatever age we are, we are all getting older. We may not like it, but as a comedian once said, "It is better than the alternative." One way of making old age more tolerable, and even enjoyable, is to keep busy as James Ball Naylor, a doctor and humorist from Ohio, knew when he wrote this verse.

Authorship

King David and King Solomon
Led merry, merry lives,
With many, many lady friends
And many, many wives;
But when old age crept over them,
With many, many qualms,
King Solomon wrote the Proverbs
And King David wrote the Psalms.

A LOT of things change as we age. A poet named R.G. Wells speaks from personal experience and lists some of the things that he observed.

Growing Older

A little more tired at close of day,
A little more anxious to have our way,
A little less ready to scold and blame,
A little more care for a brother's name;
And so we are nearing the journey's end,
Where time and eternity meet and blend.

A little less care for bonds or gold,
A little more zeal for the days of old;
A broader view and a saner mind,
A little more love for all mankind;
And so we are faring down the way
That leads to the gates of a better day.

A little more love for the friends of youth,
A little more zeal for established truth,
A little more charity in our views,
A little less thirst for the daily news;
And so we are folding our tents away
And passing in silence at close of day.

A little more leisure to sit and dream,
A little more real the things unseen,
A little nearer to those ahead,
With visions of those long loved and dead;
And so we are going where all must go -
To the place the living may never know.

A little more laughter, a few more tears,
And we shall have told our increasing years.
The book is closed and the prayers are said,
And we are part of the countless dead;
Thrice happy then, if some soul can say,
"I live because of their help on the way."

Stewart Lee for Electric Comedy

STEWART Lee began stand-up at the age of 20 in 1988, winning the Hackney Empire new act of the year award in 1990. In the 90's he contributed to various BBC Radio comedy shows, including Fist of Fun and On The Hour, with Steve Coogan and Chris Morris, performed as a stand-up almost nightly on the London circuit, and co-created four series for BBC2 with Richard Herring.

Stewart directed the Mighty Boosh's breakthrough Edinburgh show, Arctic Boosh (1999), Simon Munnery's Golden Rose Of Montreux nominated BBC2 show, Attention Scum, (2000), and a revival of Eric Bogosian's Talk Radio (Underbelly 2007). In 2001 he was invited to help write the libretto of, and direct, the composer Richard Thomas' developing work, Jerry Springer The Opera, at Battersea Arts Centre. The show won four Olivier awards after its National Theatre run, though it was prevented from enjoying any commercial future by the pressure group, Christian Voice.

Stewart's subsequent three stand-up shows, 2004's Stand-Up Comedian, 2005's 90s Comedian and 2007's 41st Best Stand-Up Ever, gradually built his live audience and contributed to BBC2's decision to commission his 2009 series, Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle. This was followed by a new stand-up show, If You Prefer A Milder Comedian Please Ask For One (2009), and a new series of Comedy Vehicle is due in 2011.

Stewart Lee is hailed by Ricky Gervais as being 'The funniest, most cliché free comedian on the circuit' and Time Out calls him "One of the top three or four living stand-ups."

You can catch Stewart Lee live at the Electric Palace on Wednesday, July 28th, when he headlines the Electric Palace's comedy club. Joining Lee will be resident compere Craig Cambell and comedian Bridget Christie.

Tickets are on sale now for £10.50 from Bridport TIC on 01308 424901. Doors open 7pm for an 8pm start.

Le Pip 'pops up' permanently at The Electric Palace

Plus Food and Film night returns following Food Week success

LOCAL women Helen Hempstead and Rosie Peters have built up a reputation with their highly successful wedding and event catering company – Le Pip. The success of their 'pop up' events and numerous weddings and private parties has encouraged them to start up a permanent restaurant in the foyer of The Electric Palace. As well as the permanent restaurant, the public will also be able to look forward to cabaret style entertainment which will include sumptuous meals and good wines in The Electric Palace.

They will be serving a range of homemade, quality, seasonal and locally sourced food from 9am till 4pm Monday to Saturday. Tea and coffee will be available from 9am, lunch is served from 12pm and afternoon tea until 4pm. Le Pip prides itself on using local suppliers. The restaurant will launch on Thursday, July 22nd to mark the beginning of the school summer holidays. A FREE glass of wine will be given out with every meal on this day (booking is advised – 07875624539).

Look out for day time food and film deals, wine tasting evenings, food and film evening events and Sunday lunch specials.

Also from Thursday, July 22nd for one week, they will be selling cup cakes to raise money for local student Katy Star. Katy has been selected by Brita Water to go to Nepal to build a water well and tank in September. All profits from the cakes will go to Katy's trip. <http://www.katystar.co.uk/nepal/>

Wednesday, July 21st will see the return of the Food and Film evening, with a selection of delicious Italian food, followed by a screening of the Oscar winning film 'Life is Beautiful'.

Fantastic folk double bill

A DOUBLE bill of outstanding folk musicians are coming to Bridport Arts Centre on Tuesday, July 20th - one of the UK Folk and Acoustic scene's most loved and admired performers, Roy Bailey and David Ferrard.

From his early days performing skiffle in student union bars, to his love of traditional songs and the stories they tell, onto developing a unique repertoire of songs of dissent and hope.

David Ferrard blends his own original songwriting with traditional material from both sides of the Atlantic. His strong, catchy melodies and commitment to social issues make his music both accessible and meaningful. He has supported Richard Thompson and Richie Havens, as well as selling-out headline gigs of his own.

With two performers sharing the bill, this promises to be an evening of both beautiful and meaningful music. Tickets can be purchased from Bridport Arts Centre's box office on 01308 424204.

Roy Bailey and David Ferrard play at Bridport Arts Centre on Tuesday, July 20th at 8pm. Tickets cost £10, £9 Supporters, £8 concessions, £5 students.

Veteran rock showman Otway for Lyme gig

ROCK veteran John Otway dubbed himself rock 'n' roll's 'greatest failure' after many unsuccessful attempts to produce a second hit single to follow his 1977 classic, Cor Baby, That's Really Free with Wild Willy Barrett. However, a mere quarter of a century later, he was back on Top of the Pops with the wonderful disco pastiche, Bunsen Burner and back in the charts as a birthday present from his adoring fans. More recently, his Beware of the Flowers Cause I'm Sure They're Going to Get You Yeah was voted the seventh greatest lyric of all time in a BBC poll. John Otway attacks his set list with gusto, leaving plenty of room for anarchy, fun and the mad acrobatics that are his trademark!

John Otway plays at Lyme Regis' Woodmead Halls as part of the Legends Return season this Saturday (July 17th). Doors open 8pm, bar open 7.30pm

Tickets in advance cost £12, on sale at the Tourist Information Centre (01297 442138) and by PayPal at this page on our website: <http://www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html>

Gavin and Stacey set for one-off return?

REPORTS suggest that the BAFTA-winning comedy, Gavin & Stacey is set to return for a one-off special.

It is claimed that Ruth Jones, who co-wrote the hit BBC series with James Corden has confirmed that a special one-off episode will be made after more than half a million fans signed a Facebook petition calling for the show's return.

The team behind the show had previously ruled out a return for the much-loved series but speaking to fans in Barry, Wales, Jones who also plays Stacey's best friend Nessa is reported to have said: "It looks like there will be a Gavin & Stacey special some time in the future. It will show how things worked out for Gavin and Stacey - and for Nessa and Smithy."

WELSH warbler Katherine Jenkins will star in this year's Doctor Who Christmas special on BBC One as part of the most Christmassy Christmas special ever. Katherine will act in her first major role alongside Harry Potter star and acting stalwart Michael Gambon.

Previous festive specials have featured John Simm, Catherine Tate and Kylie Minogue.

IT seems like everyone's been tipped for the job at some point but now Tess Daly is said to be the new host of The One Show. Reports suggest that the Strictly Come Dancing presenter is in talks with BBC bosses about replacing Christine Bleakley and teaming up with Jason Manford on the famous sofa. A BBC source revealed: "Tess is the one they are after. She has the sort of face you'd want to switch on to after a day at work".

NOT content with presenting panel comedy show Shooting Stars, Vic Reeves and Bob Mortimer have revealed they fancy doing a sketch show again. The pair became famous for their surreal comedy shows The Smell Of Reeves And Mortimer and Bang Bang. Vic said: "We'd like to get in the studio next week and start doing a Bang Bang or Smell Of. But until we get the green light, we'll just keep doing Shooting Stars."

Harveys' hard work rewarded

JON and Cathy Harvey won Best Small Garden for their delightful oasis at the back of their house in North Allington, Bridport at the recent Melplash Garden Show Competition.

The judges were impressed by the excellent use of the very limited and unusual space. They added that the garden sectioned by structures and covered with climbers, gave various choices of planting to suit conditions, and the choice of plants gave a variety of colour throughout the year.

Buzz goes to 3D and beyond...

WOODY, Buzz and all the gang will return in 3D for the much-anticipated third instalment of Toy Story (U).

Eleven years since Toy Story 2, Andy is now 17-years-old and preparing to move to college. Unable to leave him behind, Andy packs favourite toy Woody to come with him. He piles the others into a bag to store in the attic, but Andy's mum mistakes the bag for rubbish and leaves in out on the pavement.

Feeling unwanted, the toys sneak into a box destined for Sunnyside Daycare but it's down to Woody to convince the toys to return home, knowing that Andy never wanted to get rid of them.

The toys don't believe Woody and decide to stay at the daycare, but they soon find out that Sunnyside isn't so sunny after all and an exciting escape adventure begins...

Released in 2D and 3D on Monday, July 19th

LIVING DOLLS | Woody and Buzz return with their plastic pals in Pixar's third Toy Story

SCI-FI thriller Inception (12A) stars Leonardo DiCaprio as Dom Cobb – also known as the Extractor, who has a specialised skill of stealing valuable secrets from deep within the subconscious during dreams. His skills have made him a top corporate spy but also an international fugitive. Dom has lost everything he ever loved but is offered a chance at redemption through one last impossible job – inception. Instead of stealing people's thoughts he has to plant one. It's the perfect crime but brings more danger than expected. Released on Friday, July 16th

TOP PSYCHIC MEDIUM IN DORCHESTER

An evening with Dan Clarke is an opportunity to give the residents of Dorchester and surrounding areas the chance to experience a completely different evening out.

Whether you are looking for a message from someone, you are interested in paranormal/psychic events, or you are a sceptic who needs to be proven these things are real, this evening is for you!

Dan was born and raised in Poole, Dorset, and comes from a long line of psychics and mediums through his Romany background.

Dan has been in contact with spirits from a very young age, and although through his early years he felt that the gift may be more of a curse, he now dedicates his life to bringing messages from the spirit world back to us.

Dan is also a Reiki Master, Empathic Healer, Crystal Healer, Animal Healer, and deals in Past Life Regression.

Although Dan may not be able to connect with everyone who attends on the night, there will be an opportunity for guests to speak directly with him, and if required book personal meetings with Dan.

The event is being run by Blandford based event management company, TDN Events, whose past events include the highly successful 'Pink Ball' in aid of breast cancer research through the UK's leading cancer charity, Cancer Research UK, which is now approaching its 4th year.

Dan appeared in Blandford at the beginning of June and amazed all 180 guests by his astonishing ability to pin point exact locations, and minute details of people's lives and history. Many guests from the previous evening have already re-booked to see Dan Clarke again in Dorchester.

Dan Clarke is in Dorchester for one night only on July 30th, so please book early to avoid disappointment. Tickets are priced at £21 each. For tickets or further info please contact Tara on 01258 454133, 07795 844244, or email enquiries@tdnevents.com.

& Sampson

A rare opportunity to acquire a much improved 3 bedroom detached chalet for Offers in excess of £300,000. It's built with uPVC elevations under a pitched roof.

The bright and well proportioned accommodation offers the luxury of a fitted kitchen and open plan reception area with most openings enjoying either a stunning sea view or rural outlook. Other benefits include approximately 1/3rd acre site which provides ample parking whilst forming part of the Jurassic Coastline and adjoins National Trust land. The current owners have landscaped the gardens to incorporate a paved patio and additional timber decked area, both providing spectacular sea views.

The gardens lie to both front and rear, adjoining the beach to the front and the National Trust land to the rear. In total, we believe the site extends to approximately 1/3rd acre and provides stunning rural and sea views.

For more information please call Symonds and Sampson Bridport office on 01308 422092.

PROPERTY MARKET UPDATE

What a strange year it has been so far! The country held its breath running up to the election and things in the property market became very slow. Once the new government was installed and began making headlines, things started to move again – especially after the suspension of HIPs. We then had a frantic period of property flooding onto the market and much of that property if priced right and in good locations, has gone under offer. However, the rush to get on the market has slowed down again and many buyers are still looking for their dream home. Most of our buyers at the moment are looking for that perfect property to live in for many years to come and therefore, it has to be right. We have found that property in the right location especially period property (as usual) is selling quickly. So, we now require more character property in East Devon and West Dorset. Condition is not important as long as the other elements are good – reasonable sized garden, good location, character features. If you own such a property and are thinking of selling, please give us a call on 01297 553768 or 01460 30888

Peugeot reveals details of the new Peugeot 508 to be launched in 2011

THE Peugeot 508 introduces the Mar-que's new design look which has evolved from the stylistic codes first unveiled on the SR1 Concept Car.

Combining both a stylish and strong design with cutting-edge technology; quality, purity and efficiency have been the watchwords that have guided the Peugeot designers and engineers during the creation of the 508.

The stylish exterior design is elegant and timeless and full of 'French chic', equally at home in Paris or London. The interior of the car combines hi-tech with the use of high quality materials and every detail has been chosen to offer indisputable perceived quality, both visually and to the touch. An exceptional interior space, a very generous boot, and a level of standard specification provide interior comfort and convenience of a very high level.

In line with Peugeot's strategy to produce vehicles that emit low levels of CO2 and optimise fuel efficiency, the 508 has been designed to optimise the performance of its engines, enhance environmental efficiency, reduce weight and improve aerodynamics, matched at all times to a broad range of highly efficient engines.

The Peugeot 508 will be powered by a range of engines all well positioned in their categories in terms of performance and driveability, but also fuel consumption and CO2 emissions. All engines will benefit from the latest engine technology including Peugeot's new e-HDi stop and start system. This is the first of the new generation of stop and start systems which offers improved driveability and economy enhancements of up to 15%.

After launch, Peugeot's HYbrid4 technology will become available on the 508 and will provide 200bhp performance with all-wheel drive and emissions of 99g/km of CO2 or zero in electric mode.

The Peugeot 508 will be available in two body styles: a Saloon (with a length of 4.79 m) and a SW (4.81 m). Both models will be revealed to the public in October at the Paris Motor Show, and will go on sale at the beginning of 2011.

Utilising the PSA Group's platform 3, the 508 will be produced in Rennes in France, for the European market and in 2011 in China, for the Chinese market.

Ford grows retail business in June – caps rental sales

FORD maintained its leadership of the UK vehicle market for the year to the end of June, at the same time as it announced a new pricing strategy across its passenger car range.

Ford Fiesta and Ford Focus are the clear UK best sellers for 2010, in first and second positions, respectively. Ford Fiesta sales totalled 57,508 in the first half of 2010 while Ford Focus sales were 48,314. Ford Fiesta is the firm favourite with retail customers with a total of 31,654 retail sales for the year to date.

During June, according to official figures released today by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, Ford was a clear leader in retail car sales, with 10,337 registrations, and in commercial vehicles with 5,447 sales. To maintain the integrity of its business, Ford consciously capped less profitable short-cycle rental business during June, which reduced fleet sales for the month and placed Ford second in terms of overall car sales with 23,716 registrations.

The announcement of a new pricing regime for Ford passenger cars on July 1, which makes the value of Ford cars much more obvious, has resonated well with private customers.

Ford is reducing the official recommended list prices on its medium and small cars from August 2. This follows similar action on Ford's large car range in April. Ahead of the August price changes, dealers will be offering special promotions which mirror the coming lower prices.

Nigel Sharp, managing director Ford of Britain, said: "In June

we took an early decision to cap the volume of short-cycle rental business in order to protect the residual values of vehicles bought by fleet and retail customers. The appeal of our best ever vehicle range is reflected in rising retail sales, boosted by our new pricing strategy, which is leading the market in making the whole purchase process more transparent."

Hyundai's i20 gets plenty of improvements

THE Hyundai i20 is getting blue on the inside and greener under the bonnet.

Minor changes to the aerodynamics and engine have resulted in a boost in fuel efficiency for all engines, while the interior is now more stylish and better equipped.

The best-selling 1.2-litre petrol engine, already one of the most efficient in the class, drops its emissions by 5g/km to 119g/km. This results in a tax disc costing just £30 and company car tax benefit-in-kind rates of just 10%.

Buyers wanting the extra power of the 1.4-litre version will see even greater savings, with the Style models dropping by 13g/km to just 129g/km. This results in a drop of two Vehicle Excise Duty bands and a 4.3mpg improvement.

The two diesel engines also see significant savings, with the 75PS model dropping by 6g/km to just 110g/km. The 90PS version gains a six-speed gearbox which helps it achieve a 7.2% improvement in fuel economy.

These improvements have been made possible by adding a small spoiler to the underneath of the car to improve airflow around the wheels, fitting an Eco Drive indicator in the instrument panel to suggest the best point to change gear, using low friction engine oil and an alternator management system.

Inside, there are two blue additions. Firstly, the dashboard and instrument illumination is now blue rather than red, bringing the i20 into line with larger Hyundai models.

Secondly, Bluetooth phone connectivity with voice recognition is now added as standard on all models except the entry-level Classic.

The new i20 is available to order now, with prices starting at £9,520. All i20s are covered by a manufacturer-backed, unlimited mileage Five Year Warranty and are equipped with ESP and air conditioning as standard.

Check your tyres before you make tracks this summer

AS THE school holiday period approaches millions of motorists will be planning to set off on a motor-holiday and choosing the UK as a destination this summer because of the strength of the Euro and the possible volcano dust cloud which, according to experts, could still interrupt travel plans in the coming months.

According to recent independent research nine in ten drivers are now taking direct action to reduce their fuel consumption. It is not generally recognised but checking and adjusting tyre pressures, says Prottyre, can help not only to reduce fuel consumption but will help reduce CO2 emissions.

Prottyre, the UK's leading independent tyre distribution network, is offering motorists a free five-point tyre safety check at each of its 49 retail outlets in the UK. If, however, you can't get to a Prottyre centre, the company offers the following advice to stay safe and legal on the road this summer:

1. Check and adjust tyre pressures as recommended in the vehicle handbook.

Why? Correctly inflated tyres not only reduce stopping distances and increase levels of grip, but also improve fuel consumption and reduce CO2 emissions

2. Tread depth. EU law requires a minimum of 1.6 mm of tread across three quarters of the width of the tyre. Although Prottyre recommends that drivers should consider changing tyre at between 2.5mm and 3mm.

Why? Insufficient tread depth greatly increases stopping distances particularly in the wet. The penalty for having an illegal tyre could mean a £2,500 fine and three penalty points on a driver's licence.

3. Check for uneven tyre wear to ensure wheel alignment and balance are correct.

Why? Misaligned or unbalanced tyres can accelerate uneven wear leading to premature replacement and vibrations through the steering.

4. Check for general tyre condition. Remove stones and other objects from tyre tread and clean dirt from around the valve and ensure valve caps are fitted.

Why? Foreign objects stuck in the tread can affect the barking and handling of a vehicle. Valve caps are designed to protect the valve from damage and prevent air loss.

5. Check for tyre age. Tyres more than 8/10 years old should be replaced.

Why? Tyres of that age are more susceptible to punctures and are less flexible than new tyres and should be replaced even if they appear to have adequate tread depth.

Find your local Prottyre outlet visit www.Prottyre.co.uk. Or call in to your local Prottyre centre for a free tyre safety check.

Consumers can help reduce road deaths

CONSUMERS need to know more about the latest technology, to help continue the decline in casualties on Britain's roads, says RoadSafe.

Director, Adrian Walsh, says, "The Department of Transport's recent announcement of a 12% reduction in road deaths is good news. It shows all the hard work is paying off. "But there is still a need to focus on road safety and the benefits that technology can afford, particularly for consumers."

RoadSafe believes improved electronic safety technology, found in newer vehicles, has helped reduce the severity of crashes. However, there is evidence to suggest the majority of car owners are unaware of the latest systems.

This evidence raises concerns that consumers may not be prepared to make informed choices about safety when buying a new or second hand vehicle.

ESC is one example. It helps stop a vehicle skidding and has been on the market for more than 10 years.

Research from the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, shows it can reduce collisions by more than 40%, but eSafetyAware has found less than 40% of the UK's car buying population is aware of it.

The motor industry has led the way in developing ESC. It is now available in almost half of all new vehicles and, following legislation, it will be mandatory in all new vehicles by 2014.

Adrian Walsh continues,

"The market is led by consumers, and uptake of this technology has been slow. "People must be better informed of other eSafety technologies, so they can demand them when buying a vehicle.

"This is an important issue, in which car magazine editors and dealers can help, in saving lives."

SIR JOHN COLFOX SCHOOL SPORTS

Successful sporting year

THE Sir John Colfox School celebrated its continued reputation as one of the most successful sporting schools in Dorset at their annual Sports Presentation Evening last Thursday.

Once again the achievements of the winners not only reflected the very high standards that some had achieved but also the diversity of sports that some of them have participated.

Three of the athletes were unable to attend the presentation because they were taking part in the English Schools National Championships at the Alexander Stadium, Birmingham on Friday.

Sprinter Holly Butt is rated in the top 15 in the country and siblings Megan and Alistair Tuck are among the country's top 20 field athletes in their discipline; Megan will captain and lead the Dorset team into the stadium.

Besides the presentation of awards there was a chance to reflect of The Rock Challenge which the school took part in earlier this term, and a video record of the past sporting year.

The evening was well supported by pupils and their families together with staff and governors of the school.

Winners: Year 7 Sportsman of the Year: Will Bowen-Ashwin, Sportsman of the Year: Lucie Fry. Year 8 Sportsman of the Year: Rhys Kilpatrick, Sportswoman of the Year: Honor Slade. Year 9 Sportsman of the Year: Mat Fry, Sportswoman of the Year: Beth Letherby. Year 10 Sportsman of the Year: Dom Gape, Sportswoman of the Year: Beth Donovan. Year 11 Sportsman of the Year: Jeff Robertshaw, Sportsman of the Year: Rachel Andrews.

6th Form Sportperson of the Year: Megan Tuck. Coach of the Year:

Megan Tuck Sports Achievement outside of school: Imogen Slade (Gymnastics). Fair Play Award: Ashley Kenway. Young Leader Award: Ryan Huish. School life support to the PE Department: Jackie Gape. Team of the Year: Junior Girls Athletics.

WINNERS | The individual winners display their awards after the sports presentation.

Hitchcock and Fryer both hit six

WEST Dorset Warriors swimmers Aaron Fryer and Charlie Hitchcock both won six gold medals at the recent Dorset ASA Development meet held at Little-down Leisure Centre in Bournemouth where after two days of competition the 57 Warrior swimmers finished second to Christchurch Seagulls.

Fryer again showed his pedigree in the 13 years level, winning the 200m Butterfly in a new competition best time, whilst simultaneously earning him most improved male performance at the meet by knocking 42 seconds off his personal best. Aaron also won the 400m freestyle, 50m breaststroke and 50m backstroke in new competition best times, and with a further two wins took his total tally to six gold medals.

Hitchcock, in the 11 yr boys, showed his dominance over the sprints with wins in the 50m and 100m for both the freestyle and breaststroke, 50m Butterfly and 100m Individual Medley, also winning him six gold medals over a busy weekend. Charlie also beat the previous competition best time in the 200m Breaststroke, only to be beaten into second place.

Liv Thornton, girls club vice captain, fresh from completing her GCSE's won five gold medals in the 16-18 yr old group, including new competition best times in the 100m and 200m breaststroke and 400m freestyle. Jess Northcote also swam faster than the previous competition best time in the 50m Backstroke, in the same age group, to gain a silver medal and went one better in the 100m freestyle to win gold.

In the younger age groups, swimming at the development meet for the first time, Millie Kelman-Johns improved on her personal best by over 8 seconds to win the 10 yr old girls 100m breaststroke having earlier reduced her 200m breaststroke best time by 18 seconds. Meanwhile in the 10 yr old boys James McKendry showed his strength to win gold in the 200m breaststroke, improving his personal best time by nearly 12 seconds and backed up his win with a second place in the 100m breaststroke. Louise Woodrow achieved one of the club's more noticeable improved performances by reducing her personal best time by over 24 seconds in the 200m freestyle.

The competition between West Dorset Warriors in the girl's 11yr old age group continues to entertain with Amber Cornick winning the 100m backstroke and 200m freestyle and Beth Guy victorious in the 200m backstroke, 200m individual medley and 100m breaststroke. Beth also improved her 100m individual medley personal best by nearly 10 seconds. Beth Ohnstad swam exceptionally well to improve her personal best time by nearly 19 seconds in the 100m breaststroke.

For the 12 yr old girls Lucie Fry won the 50m butterfly in a new competition best time and Charlotte Mathews gained gold in the 400m freestyle. Amie Buttle and Olivia Freeman led the way for the 13 yr old girls, both winning two gold's; 200m backstroke and 400m freestyle for Amie and 100m freestyle and 200m butterfly for Olivia.

Charlotte Fairman in the 14 yr old girls won the 200m backstroke, improving her personal best time in the process.

Peter Horne gained a brace of new competition best times for the 14 yr old boys in the 50m backstroke and 50m butterfly, with Luke Voss winning the 50m freestyle in the same age group. Whilst in the 15 yr old boys Guy Buttle was rewarded with a win in the 100m backstroke.

After a heavy competition over two days, at the end of each day, the eight fastest boys and eight fastest girls across the age groups are selected to race against each other in an elimination group called skins. West Dorset Warriors were proud to have Guy Buttle, Peter Horne, Tom Cooper and Aaron Fryer swimming backstroke skins on the Saturday, and Luke Voss and Jess Northcote swimming in the freestyle skins on the Sunday.

Presentations of BAGCAT awards were made at the weekend to the top eight boys and girls of each age group following the Dorset County Championships earlier in the year. Victoria Halford and Amie Buttle received BAGCAT awards for the girls, with William Blackledge and Peter Thornton winning their awards for the boys section.

Table tennis Shipton Gorge club mourns President

OBITUARY - JOHN FENTON

IT was with sadness that the Shipton Gorge Table Tennis Club learnt of the passing of their Honorary President John Fenton who died on Friday, June 18th in Dorchester Hospital of pneumonia.

John, who we think was 75, worked for some years in the pathology department of Guys Hospital and he donated his body to medical science. His body is now at Guys Hospital and there are no funeral arrangements or, as far as we know, any plans for a remembrance ceremony.

His two daughters live in Devon and Australia and sadly we know little of his early life or career.

John lived in Bothenhampton after moving from Reading where he was a very active table tennis player and administrator. His competitive table tennis was well behind him when he arrived on the local scene but he soon became well known to players and clubs in the area and helped with coaching, particularly of beginners and late starters!

He was very supportive of our new club and became our first chairman in 2008, and in 2009 he was unanimously appointed our first Honorary President. Despite his health failing he still came to Thursday afternoon club sessions to within a month of his final illness.

We know John was also a golfer, a tennis coach and a very keen photographer, specialising in black and white and producing particularly good shots of our village church.

He will be sadly missed by his many friends.

SPINNER ADDED TO SQUAD

DORSET County Cricket Club manager Sean Walbridge has made one change to his table-topping squad for this weekend's Minor Counties Championship visit of Herefordshire to Dean Park.

Nineteen year old left-arm spinner Jack Leach who plays for Taunton Deane CC and Somerset 2nds has been brought in to replace Raj Naik.

Walbridge commented: "We feel that by bringing in Jack (Leach) it gives the side better balance. Having a left-arter should compliment Tom Hicks and Glyn Treagus. That's not a slight against Raj (Niak) who has performed well this season.

Dorset head the Minor Counties Championship (West) table after inflicting a first defeat in four years on defending champions Cheshire at Bournemouth earlier this month.

On paper, with Herefordshire languishing near the foot of the table, Dorset are favourites. But the hosts will be aware that both skipper Chris Boroughs and Dan Bassett cracked fine centuries in the visitors first win of the season down in Devon two weeks ago.

Double award for Weymouth Rugby club

WEYMOUTH Rugby Club has been recognised for the high standard of their website by being awarded runner-up of the Dorset & Wilts RFU Technology Awards.

Chairman Glyn Arnold is seen receiving the award from Dorset and Wilts President Clive Drake.

Glyn said: "I would like to thank our webmaster Kate Berry and Wyke Web Design for their hard work which helped us to gain this award."

The Seaside also received the South West Seal of Approval Club of the Year award from Clive Drake at the same ceremony.

WITH STEVE PERCIVAL

Recovering Lock secures Seniors Championship

CONGRATULATIONS go to David Lock for winning the SWCGA Seniors Championship on a hilly Lanhdyrock course.

David was not planning to play as he was recovering from a knee injury but the hero he is standing in at the last minute for John Nash who was taken ill at the Kent match and is still recovering.

David had a steady 74 on the first day and a real shaky start to his second but all he was interested in was ensuring he kept a respectable card for the team competition.

His 71 and 145 total was enough to tie the lead with Gloucestershire's David Potter who scored a 71 & 74, so it was down to a play off and on the first a great sand save was enough to give David the title. As can be seen in the photo, where he is receiving his well earned trophy, David was still in total shock at his achievement.

The Dorset team will be going to this year's EGU Seniors County finals at on the home course of Ferndown.

Every player in the Dorset side broke 80 in both rounds, the only team to do so and this ensured the team won through with a very good 736 total six shots clear of their nearest rivals Gloucestershire who had 742.

The sound performance from all ensured the team picked up the coveted prize and Dorset will of course do their utmost in representing the SW Counties at the National final again.

LYME REGIS LADIES with Ellie Langford

THE Ladies Open, a Progressive Bowmaker, was a great success with the event being fully subscribed. There were a few anxious moments when the fog began to roll in and threaten to force a cancellation of the competition, but luck was with us and all it did was waft in and out and all the competitors finished and with the dry conditions there were some good results.

Results: 1 Jill Jestico, Joan Clark, Mary Ware, The Mendip; Julia Coote Lyme Regis with 123 points; 2 Valerie Lee, Maureen Lovett, Joan Robson, Ashley Wood; Liz Thompson, Lyme Regis 122 points: 3 Janet Brunwin, East Devon, Yvonne Gray, Yeovil, Ann Granville, Churston, Ellie Langford, Lyme Regis 121 points ocb: 4 Eileen Walkington, Yeovil; Carol Brown, Bridport, Sue Chambers, Henbury, Anne Humphreys, Lyme Regis, 121 points: 5 Jenny Keats, Jan Hasker, Ann Dalimore, Parkstone, Jane Southcombe Lyme Regis 120 points: 6 Jan Clark, Viv Gill, Sylvia Delves, Bridport; Sassy Hay Lyme Regis, 117 points.

CONGRATULATIONS | David Lock receives the SWCGA Seniors trophy.

Lyme Regis Bowls

RELEGATION THREATENS MENS CHAMPIONSHIP SIDE

THERE were mixed results in the league this week again, with the ladies coming out in front writes Paul Moffitt.

Lyme A managed a very creditable 10 points against Bridport A and the B team six points against Sherborne A despite losing on two rinks.

The Championship side are beginning to lose their way with only three points away to bottom placed West Moors.

They need to secure better than half the remaining points if they wish to stay clear of relegation.

The men fared better in the Dorset Cup when beating Wimborne by 77-66. Both home teams won whilst the two teams playing away just went down by the odd point over the two rinks.

The ladies again took control over their opposition from Gillingham in Division Two with a very fine 10 point haul.

This now leaves them with a buffer at the top of the league and I am sure with a concerted effort they deserve to be in Division One next season.

This Sunday saw Lyme Regis Club play hosts to the Dorset Men's Pairs quarter and semi finals.

Anyone who found the time to go and watch this event was treated to some exceptional bowling, with last year's National Pairs champions, Martin Pavey & Jamie Lockwood, being dumped out in the quarter finals.

The Percy Baker and Edna Paisley league's continue to offer good pickings for the Lyme guys & gals, at least one of the mens teams looking set for the play offs.

Summer Soccer Snippets OFF WE GO AGAIN!

LYME REGIS FC

LYME Regis players return to the fold after their summer break for pre-season tomorrow (Thursday, July 15th). Club Manager Robin Townsend is looking to build on last season's magnificent season.

The training sessions will take place every Tuesday and Thursday at 6.30pm at the Davey Fort.

BEAMINSTER FC

BEAMINSTER, under the guidance of new manager Sean Annetts are also traingon Tuesday's and Thursday's. The sessions commence at 6.30pm at the Memorial Ground with any new players welcome. For more details ring Sean Annetts on 07779 225826.

PYMORE FC

PYMORE will look to begin life in Perry Street League Division Two in positive fashion following their relegation back in May.

Player-manager Matt Tither, assisted this season by Rob Hedditch, will oversee the club's first pre-season training session on Tuesday, July 20th at St Marys Field at 6.30pm. All players, old or new, are welcome.

Tither confirmed to View Sport that he expects the majority of last season's squad - barring skipper Leigh Hansford who is on his way to Wayton Hounds - to return for the new campaign. For more details call Matt Tither on 07967 093563.

NETHERBURY FC

NETHERBURY will be encouraged by last season's showing which saw them go on a nine-match unbeaten run in the autumn before finishing in sixth spot and enjoying a run-out in the Division One Cup Final where they were beaten 1-0 by Ilminster Town Colts.

Manager Andy Loudon returns to helm when the Ambers begin their pre-season training tonight (Wednesday, June 14th) at 6.30pm at St Mary's Field. New players will be more than welcome.

CHARMOUTH FC

FORMER Player-manager Nick Pomeroy is returning to Barrs Lane.

Pomeroy (45) will be assistant to manager Mike Walton having last season filled the same position behind Ian Pincombe in the now defunct White Horse side. He had previously had several seasons as the Robins' manager.

◆ It was a case of 'Girl Power' all round at Charmouth Football Club on Saturday when the 'Local Ladies' took on the village team in their challenge to retain 'The Dennis Bearpark Memorial Shield'. A sizeable crowd watched and cheered as the ladies (captained by Kelly Dixon) won by 7 goals to 3.

Not content with beating the men 'on the pitch' the ladies then gave them a valuable lesson in fund raising! Led by Carol Healy they collected many attractive donations from local businesses for an auction held at the George Hotel in the evening.

Bidding was brisk and a splendid total of £783 was raised over the day's events.

Special thanks to Colin Bowditch for preparing the pitch, Angie and Sue Healy for running the cake stall and raffle, Wayne Causley for refereeing the match, The George Hotel for supplying refreshments for the teams and Gerry Bearpark for being our auctioneer.

The football club are extremely grateful to all the girls for their hard work.

3rd place for Lauren

LOCAL swimmer Lauren Harrison; 13 represented Chard and District Swimming Club in the 1.5km ASA South West Region Open Water Swimming Championships and Age Group Competitions at Preston Beach, Weymouth on Sunday, July 4th writes Steph Hallam.

This was Lauren's first attempt at an open water event and she was apprehensive about swimming through choppy waters on a cold, windy day.

She need not have worried though as she was the first female swimmer from Somerset to complete the event in a time of 26:26, enabling her to grasp the first position for her respective age group ( 13-14 years). Overall, she was the third female in all age groups to finish.

SIX-UP DORCHESTER TAKE TOP SPOT

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Premier League
Broadstone 144 all out
lost to Dorchester 146-3 by 7 wickets

A SIXTH win on the trot saw Dorchester take over top spot in the Premier league and put them on course for a second title win in three years.

Previously unbeaten Poole Town were beaten by Parley, who themselves had been undefeated until two successive losses prior to Saturday, which has allowed Dorchester the chance to steam past both to snatch top spot.

Some superb bowling by Phil Morley (4-32) and a good all round performance by Rob Waite saw the county town cruise past Broad-stone with seven wickets in hand and almost 24 overs to spare.

Broadstone elected to bat but were soon in trouble. Morley bowled Thomas for a duck, and after Andy Mead (1-21) accounted for Hanratty (9), Morley then sent back Jones (6) and Wallis (0) to leave them 36-4. Chapman (18) became his fourth victim before Joe Power (3-30) got in on the act having Trembath (11) caught by Waite as things looked bad for Broadstone on 76-6.

However Ryan Wiltshire (28) and Greg Parsons (28) added 46 for the eight wicket before the former became Paul Tweddle's third catch of the innings, this time off Waite (2-25), and the hosts were finally dismissed for 144 all out.

Dorchester lost both Pete Moxom (8) and Dave Maslen (9) to Holm (2-24) with just 25 on the board, but Tweddle joined Waite as they added 78 for the third wicket.

When Waite went for 43, skipper Martyn Richards (21 not out) and Tweddle (46 not out) comfortably saw Dorchester home.

The visitors made light of their target however with skipper Colin Randall (40) and Andy Hayward (54) putting on a stand of 108 for the first wicket. Although Michael Pearce finally removed them both when he came on

Weymouth 249 all out lost to Wimborne & Colehill 252-6 by 4 wickets
WEYMOUTH missed the chance to pull themselves to midtable safety by losing to strugglers Wimborne & Colehill.

Put into bat, the Seaside failed to set a good enough target, and had to rely on bowler Andrew Falloon to boost their total. The Kiwi hit 74 not out as Weymouth's top order got started but failed to go on to make a big score.

Weymouth lost skipper Paul Payne (8) with the score on 16 but Jim Ryall (30) and John Armfield (28) continue to push the score along. Kieron Womble (16) and reinstated Dean Janaway (35) added their contributions but it was Falloon that bolstered the total to a respectable target.

The visitors made light of the reply with skipper Colin Randall (40) and Andy Hayward (54) putting on 108 for the first wicket, before Michael Pearce removed both in quick succession.

However Graham Cole (33) and David Guest (59) added to Weymouth's agony as they added 91 for the third wicket before Cole was brilliantly caught by Payne as Pearce struck again. He also dismissed Guest to give him four wickets in the match, but Wimborne comfortably reached their target.

Division One
Beaminster 232-7 lost to Sherborne 304-7 by 72 runs

A STRONG Sherborne batting line-up and a mid order collapse in reply meant Beaminster had no option to play for batting points and improve their technique and confidence for the run-in. Rooted at the bottom they need to pick up as many batting and bowling points as possible if they do not win.

Captain Ross Baker said: "They have a very strong batting line-up and unless you get off to a flyer in reply to a total like theirs it was always going to be difficult. In the end we had to settle for batting out overs out, picking up points and improving our confidence for the remaining games."

Baker inserted the visitors on a good wicket with lightning fast outfield, and although good bowling from Andy Sherring (1-54) and Simon Jones (1-36) put Sherborne's openers under pressure, Dorset player Josh Lawrence scored a quick 31 before he was well caught by Nick David off the former.

However although Baker (2-79) removed L Hancock (31) and Paul Martin (1-58) dismissed Griffiths (10), it was M Lock and Richard Carter (55) who built the Sherborne total. They added 70 for the fourth wicket with Lock ending just two runs short of his century as they closed on 304-7 off their 50 overs.

Richard Runyard (17) and Chris Park (17) made a solid start in reply but the dismissal of David (12) to tame shot and Joe Hawkins for a duck, saw Beaminster slip to 73-4.

However Jones and Dan Hillier, who have been out of form recently dug in and added 99 for the fifth wicket before Hillier was lbw to Lawrence for a watchful 35.

With Sherborne's bowlers much more economical than Beaminster, they fell behind the clock, and so patient batting from Jones who was eventually out for an excellent 73, and Baker with a steady 27 not out guided them past 200 and maximum batting points. They finished on 232-7 but with eight points.

Baker was pleased with his sides performance considering the situation. "We didn't bowl too badly, they were just a very strong outfit, and it was nice to Simon (Jones) back in form with the bat.

He played some lovely shots and showed last week that he is getting back to form, and this would have done wonders for his confidence. Dan Hillier has also been out of sorts but he played a very watchful innings.

"It was pleasing that we batted out our overs. We are starting to appreciate our wickets now; we were a bit naive at the beginning of the season and gave them away. However we need every point we can so we need to be patient and that appears to be happening at last."

Bournemouth 198-7 beat Weymouth 2nd 197 all out by 3 wickets

WEYMOUTH found second placed Bournemouth too strong for them, and although they went close skipper John Ryan admitted they were the better side.

Having restricted Weymouth to 197 all out, Bournemouth took the game away from them in the opening overs to win by three wickets.

"They juggled their batting around, promoting two lads that needed to be away early, and one of them Hurley threw his bat at everything to the point that I had to bring Dave Trotter (1-47) and Neil Walton (1-40) off after five overs and put on the spin of Faraz Ulhaq and myself."

It did the trick with Ulhaq (2-41) getting Hurley (37) first ball, and Ryan (1-27) doing likewise in a wicket maiden trapping Collings (7).

However the damage had been done and with the help of Anderson (30), Iles (88 not out) steadily took Bournemouth to victory. Skipper Coombs, normally an opener hit a quickfire 22 at number eight, as they cruised home with almost 15 overs to spare.

Having been asked to bat, Weymouth lost Luke Carrington (0) and James Almond (13) with 17 on the board, but Andy Bray (25) and Sean Fitzgerald (19) brought them back into the game. However when they both fell to Trellis and Simon Mitchem (6) had departed, Weymouth were in trouble at 73-5.

A sixth-wicket stand of 67 between Trotter (39) and Ulhaq (33) once again lifted Weymouth and although Mote (15) and Walton (12 not out) got into double figures, their total of 197 was never going to be enough.

"It was a good wicket and we really should have got 250 which would have been a reasonable ask, but although several made starts, no one went on for a big score," said Ryan who gave Bournemouth credit for their all round game. They were, young, mobile in the field and as their second place suggests, a good side."

Division Two
Dorchester 2nd 145 all out lost to Hamworthy Recreation 294-7 by 139 runs
DORCHESTER 2nds found table toppers Hamworthy Recreation too strong for them and meekly surrendered by 139 runs.

"They have a very strong batting line-up and everyone contributed a decent score. We didn't make much of a fight of it unfortunately with three of our top five out for ducks," said captain Ian Sibley, who on winning the toss decided to field first.

Hamworthy captain Clapp top scored with 70 plus, whilst Steve Budd was Dorchester's best bowler with 4-58 whilst Sibley also commended John Legg who took 1-40 off his seven overs.

Legg was also one of only two who made decent scores. He made 32 with Stuart Voss contributing 38 to a below par total of 145 all out.

Division Three
Bridport 133 all out lost to Portland RT 185 all out by 52 runs

INEXPERIENCE was probably the cause of Bridport's defeat to fellow basement strugglers Portland RT, and despite a scintillating display by Ashley Nicholls with both bat and ball, Bridport really need good fortune over the rest of the season to avoid being relegated three seasons in a row.

Batting first the Islanders have to thank Barrett for their modest score of 185 which would have been considerably less had Bridport not got slack lost concentration midway through the innings. Tight bowling and good fielding had restricted the visitors in the first 35 overs with Barrett very subdued and almost snail like.

"It was as if the lads just switched off for a while and Barrett to bat freely and started hitting out," said captain Mark Smith. "I had hoped to have restricted them to 140-150, but at 160-6 they looked to go beyond the 200 mark."

That is until Nicholls returned to the attack to demolish the Portland tail to finish with 6-47 off his twelve overs. He was well backed up by Dom Gape (3-27 off nine).

Smith was still positive about their chances even though Bridport got off to a terrible start with Liam Toohill (10), Smith (4) and last week's batting hero Gape who went for a duck, all back in the pavilion.

However Nicholls, promoted to three, and Mark Tozer, another who has been scoring freely at the crease recently, took the score from 18-3 to 101 before Tozer (27) was caught going for a big one, and the batting collapsed began.

Nicholls fought on hitting a massive six, before he was out going for another big one for an excellent 62.

Only Dave Backhouse can feel unlucky with a ball that reared up and gave a catch behind, as the rest capitulated to a series of poor strokes as Bridport were all out for 133 with plenty of overs to spare.

"I must say it is not like them to give their wickets away so cheaply, but maybe it was inexperience. I am gutted to have lost to the side immediately above us. Ashley performed brilliantly with the ball and batted patiently.

"We may have to change our tactics. We used to be good at chasing, but I think we need to set the pace. We need to win five of our last seven to give our selves a reasonable chance of survival."

Martinstown 107-7 beat Cattistock 104 all out by 3 wickets

FOLLOWING successive defeats, Martinstown got back to winning ways in a low scoring match against Cattistock.

Division Four
Poole Town 3rds 207-6 beat Beaminster
2nds 171 all out by four runs (revised target)

POOLE won the toss and chose to bat first and made steady progress throughout their innings. The pick of the Beaminster bowlers were; Ade Phillips (3 for 48), Murray Legg (1 for 17), and Chris Rowsell (1 for 26). Poole eventually reached 207 for 6 from their 45 overs.

There was a 30 minute delay during the innings due to a Poole batsmen dislocating his knee. The delay meant the visitors had a revised target of 175 from 38 overs to win.

After being reduced to 19 for 2, Phillips (33) and Rowsell (18) produced a 50 partnership.

The loss of Rowsell brought Adam Herring to the crease. Herring proceeded to smack 10 fours in a very controlled innings, he eventually fell for 51 and gave his team every chance of victory.

Unfortunately the tail failed to wag and Beaminster were finally bowled out for 171 in the final over, four runs short of victory.

Division Five
Weymouth 3rd beat Broadstone 4th
no result (Broadstone scratched)

WEYMOUTH picked up an easy 20 points to stay top of Division Five when Broadstone 4ths scratched on Saturday morning.

Division Six
Abbotsbury 150-6 lost to Christchurch 2nd 213 all out by 73 runs
ABBOTSBURY came up against a strong Christchurch side and were well beaten.

The table-topping visitors elected to bat first on winning the toss, and soon put together some good stands; the major contribution coming from Breddy with 67.

The introduction of Ashley Cannon, returning to the side after a five year absence was soon successful as he took a wicket with only his second ball on the way to an excellent return of 4-49.

Some good scoring at the end from Thompson (26) and Spicer (20) allowed Christchurch to set a challenging total before Straker (-51) and Pretty (3-39) wrapped up the tail.

Some tight bowling and excellent catching and fielding kept the visitors well on top of the Abbotsbury batsmen and though Nick Kneebone (22), Pretty (29) and Gary Pittman (33) all contributed useful runs, the Swans were always well behind the required strike rate.

A couple of useful blows from Beesley (14 not out) however enabled them to reach the fourth batting point.

The general feeling from the Abbotsbury dressing room after the game was that they were simply much better than them on the day.

Blandford 3rd 149 all out lost to Bridport 2nd 153-5 by 5 wickets

BRIDPORT 2nds eased their relegation worries a little with five wicket win over Blandford 3rd's.

New captain Jamie Dollman won the toss and decided to field and thought they had made an early breakthrough when it appeared Savage was caught behind when on seven. However the appeal was not upheld and Savage (22) and opening partner Craig (15) put on 40 for the first wicket.

The Bridport bowlers, led by Rodney Gay (4-37) and supported by Robin Jones (3-18) and Pete Bustin (2-26), persevered however and took wickets at regular intervals. Only Newton (25) showed any resistance as they slumped to 122-9 before a quickfire 21 not out from Martin made the tail wag.

Bridport lost Duane Gay (4) early on but Dean Sweet hung around for 20 overs in making four whilst Toby Hall blasted an almost electric 49 by comparison.

Will Gape guided Bridport home with a fine 55 not out, sharing a fourth wicket stand of 60 with Chris Churchill (18) as he went.

Dollman who has seen his side win three of the four games he has been in charge said: "It was a good win and helped us enormously. However we conceded 26 extras, and that is something I want us to try and address for the future."

Dorchester 3rd 220-9 lost to Sturminster Marshall 222-5 by 5 wickets

DORCHESTER 3rds drop to third following their home defeat by Sturminster Marshall who now move above them into second place.

Defeat is something the county town have not been used to, having suffered their first loss in two years earlier this season. However Sturminster Marshall have proved to be a tough side have only tasted defeat once themselves this campaign.

Despite Dorchester posting a reasonable target, the visitors took the match with five wickets to spare.

Sunday Division Four
Lychett Minster 277-8 beat
Symene 162 all out by 115 runs

SYMENE'S hopes of victory over strugglers Lychett Minster were thwarted by an opportune century from opener P Alloman. He survived a number of spilt chances to amass 110 of the host's total which also included an amazing 50 extras. Only G Easthorpe with 30 not out at the end got anywhere near the runs squandered by Symene.

Liam Toohill was the most successful Symene bowler with 3-48, whilst Colin Willcox (2-61) and Marcel Grunschloss (2-65) toiled through their maximum 12 over stints.

Willcox gave Symene a bright start with 27 but only Graham Bartlett (39) was in any kind helpful early on, and it took a last wicket stand of 56 between John Ellis with a resilient 39, and Nick Skyrme (12 not out) to get the visitors two extra batting points.

S Cockwell took 7-57 as Lychett ran out easy winners.

Bridport Rugby Club

BLUES BACK IN TRAINING

BRIDPORT RFC senior players have started their pre-season training for what will be a tough season following their promotion to Southern Counties.

Coaching the squad again this season are coaches Paul Nimmin and Chris Burton, with Alan Stearck assisting with injury rehabilitation training. During this month the main emphasis has been on fitness and basic skills with a little match training.

From the start of August they will focus more on the match training ready for a number of pre-season friendlies.

The first of these is an away match against Ivel Barbarians on August 21st followed a week later by an away match against Honiton. The squad then return for a home game against Chard on August 31st.

Numbers at training have been good for the time of year but there is always space for new players to join the squad and earn a place in the team. Training takes place on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Brewery field commencing at 7pm. For further details contact Paul Nimmin on 07976 918 559.

The players will also be hoping to have the use of a couple of training sessions with the Socious Sports coaches who are down at Bridport for a week long coaching school for juniors players starting on Monday July 26th.

The coaches this year are Mthoko Jali a great South African coach and Tom Lawrence, a Kiwi who has coached with Socious Sports before. There are still a few places left and further details can be found on the Socious Sports website at www.socioussports.co.uk.

Quarter-final KO for Wildcats

NEWPORT HORNETS 53 WEYMOUTH WILDCATS 35 (agg 102-76)

IT WAS a tall order for Weymouth Weyline Wildcats to overcome their 41-49 first leg defeat in the KO Cup quarter-final in May, and so it proved at Queensway Meadows on Thursday when they were beaten 53-35 for an aggregate defeat of 102-76.

The Wildcats started with a second place for Byron Bekker in heat one, followed by top Cat on the night, Richard Andrews taking the win with Luke Chessell in second after ex-Wildcat James White-Williams was excluded and Tom Young retired from the race. Gary Gottham and Tom Brown filled the minor places in heat three keeping the slender three point lead intact. James Cockle won the only ride he finished in heat four, while Chessell packed in for second to put the Cats 8-15 up. Bekker won heat five with Cottham in third split by Hornets skipper Tony Atkin whilst another ex-Weymouth rider Tim Webster took a trip to hospital with a suspected broken collarbone injury.

Hornets Aussie pairing of Todd Kurtz and Mark Jones hit back with maximum points in heat six to cut the lead to 15-20. Another ex-Cat Kyle Newman took the flag while Cottham and Brown packed the lower places to keep the five point lead in heat seven. Jones supported by White-Williams brought the Hornets to within a single point of the Cats in heat eight, and when Tom Young popped in his first of two wins for the Hornets in heat nine with Andrews in second; just two finishers with Cockle disqualified and Aitkin retiring from the race, the scores were level at 26-26.

The Aussies again romped away for another 5-1 in heat 10 giving Newport the lead, Newman again took the flag in heat 11 with Bekker and Andrews packing in to share the points. The killer blow came in heat 12 for Weymouth; Young and White-Williams combined for a 5-1 over Andrews with Brown again disqualified from the race to lead 39-31. Bekker split Newman and Kurtz in heat 13, Chessell took a fall and the Cats were now ten down 43-33.

Hornets skipper Atkin with White-Williams stomped off to a 5-1 in heat 14 as did Newman and Kurtz in the last races to give victory on the night and overall to Newport 102-76 and passage into the semi-final stages

Weymouth Golf Club - Ladies section

SUNSHINE AND SUCCESS

THIS year's Cresta Cup was won this year by Penny Hunt with a nett 73 and the Macmillan Cancer Care Spoon by Audrey Garnett with 34 points (writes Elaine Rockingham)

Our final two interclub matches were played this month. We had an excellent day at Ferndown and won 4-3, but our second match at the Dorset Golf and County Club was less successful as we lost 5 ½ - 1 ½. However this was the only match lost in this season's games, so well done to our interclub team.

Our Beales team also had mixed results this month by losing 7-0 to a very strong team at Yeovil but then had a good win, 5-2 three days later against Ashley Wood.

We played our first Friendly against Windwhistle Club and won 3-1 and well done to the Parkin Cup team who have reached the semi finals by winning their match 2-1 against Dudsbury.

We finished the month with a win against Bournemouth & Meyrick Park 6-1.

Finally, on our Invitation Day, we had 32 ladies playing on a beautiful sunny day and some excellent scores were returned.

Results:

Beehawk Heartbreak for Buckler

CULLAHILL'S good showing in finishing second in the Sis Live Handicap Chase at Newton Abbot last week was marred by the death of Beehawk in the same race who was running for the first time since joining the stable.

The 11-year-old who recently arrived from Kevin Bishop's establishment had a history of leg problems and was returning to racing having not run for a year following a tendon problem.

Unfortunately he was pulled up by jockey Will Kennedy after jumping two fences and had to be put down after it was found that he had severed a tendon.

"The prognosis was that whilst the tendon could have possibly been repaired, because of the previous scar tissue and damage, the amount of pain and suffering the horse would have had to go through over a long period to do no more than limp around a field at best. In the circumstances the owner decided he did not want the horse to suffer anymore," explained Buckler.

Cullahill however was running well having been fitted with a tongue tie to help prevent him choking, and Harry Skelton had him well placed. Having made a mistake at the first fence down the back straight last time around he had to work hard to get back in the mix and Buckler thought the extra distance and big weight were contributory factors in him not getting up to win.

"The mistake made him work harder and negated the tongue tie a bit as he choked over the last two fences. This caused him to put in a couple of short ones which ruined his chances.

"He will have a throat operation now to try and correct the problem, and if it is successful he will be a very nice horse."

Following Mrs Overall's poor run at Uttoxeter in the Come And Join Chasing Gold Racing Club Novices' Handicap Hurdle, she has now been sold on. Having been in touch at the start, she soon dropped out under pressure and was eventually pulled up.

"She tries and is genuine, but she doesn't have the speed to be a racehorse. Her debut was promising, but she had failed to improve and has now been sent to an eventing yard where I think she will prove to be useful."

Flag Flier found the ground too firm and failed to make an impression at Worcester last Wednesday, and although she finished she was shook up by the experience.

"Although the course had been watered, unfortunately under the surface the ground was too hard for her. In cases like that, horses who find the ground too hard, don't tend to plant their feet as they might on good ground and skip the hurdles, and as a consequence lost ground when they quickened. She was shook up at the finish, and won't run again until the ground is a little softer."

The summer is when trainers sort out their yards, moving horses on and bringing new ones in.

Besides Mrs Overall who has now left the yard, Buckler is sending Howlin At The Moon and Winter Warmer to the sales this week, and is in discussions with a number of owners at the possibility of bringing in new horses.

Close finish in first open boat festival

THERE was a close finish to West Bay Sea Angling Club's first Open Boat Festival of the year with Dave Smith's specimens of pout and cuckoo wrasse winning the day.

Twenty three competitors took part with the boats fishing out of West Bay.

Dave totalled 144% just ahead of Dave Cornick and Peter Grinter.

This year's golden fish (pulled out of the hat before the start) was pout which was won by Peter Grinter's with his 980g specimen.

With ideal conditions of blazing sunshine and a westerly breeze blowing, all but two of the competitors caught fish to weigh in which included: black bream, bass, poor cod, pout, dogfish, pollack, gurnard, wrasse, smoothhound, scad and plaice.

Each angler was only allowed to bring one of each species to the scales as the competition is won by the person with the best two specimens of different species.

None of the fish were wasted as those not required for the pot by the competitors were given away.

1st: Dave Smith 144% (pout 65% & cuckoo wrasse 79%)

2nd Dave Cornick 137% (dogfish 76% & cuckoo wrasse 61%)

3rd Peter Grinter 136% (pout 72% & dogfish 64%)

Best Flatfish: Garth Edwards plaice 550 g 27% (this was the only flatfish caught)

Best Round Fish: Dave Smith cuckoo wrasse 79%

Most Species: Graham Stephenson with six species (this was tied between competitors so the winner was decided by the total percentage. Graham's was 264%)

Golden Fish: Peter Grinter pout 980g
Secretary Tiny Daw thanked The George, West

Bay for the use of their beer garden for the event and commented that he was extremely pleased by the turnout considering that England were playing Germany in the World Cup that day.

"I think the competitors were glad they chose to fish as they had a better result than the England football team!" he quipped.

FRY INJURY BLOW FOR BEES

BRIDPORT Football Club have been rocked by an injury to keeper Jamie Fry that will keep him out for at least six weeks writes Stuart Broom.

The injury to his third finger on his right hand is a severe blow to manager Trevor Senior who is hoping that his side will build on last season's success, in which Fry played a leading part, and make a good start to this campaign.

The problem is the result of an old injury which was exacerbated during training last week. Fry feeling intense discomfort was examined and sent for surgery last Saturday. It is believed that it relates to a tendon problem and that tendons from the adjacent little finger have been used in the repair.

Senior is lucky in that Lee Cuff has returned to the club and is expected to be between the sticks on Friday when the Bees visit Westland Sports for their first friendly.

Senior confirmed that Dorchester have kindly loaned them 17-year-old Sam Filkins as a replacement for Fry, and the stopper will play some part in the next friendly against Weymouth at St Mary's Field on Tuesday.

Better news for Senior is that Ryan Dovell has now signed forms and attended training along with Adam Lloyd, a 17-year-old utility player who was with Westland Sports last season.

Russell Legg is back at St Mary's whilst Matt Moors has been training, although it is unlikely that he will feature in any of the friendlies as Senior wants him to return to full fitness first.

Both Carl and Gary Bulman are training but as both are suspended will not be available for the early games, whilst Ashley Clarke is still troubled by an ankle injury he sustained at the end of the season.

Down the coats at the Wessex Stadium, Weymouth played their first friendly on Saturday against Torquay United.

Manager Ian Hutchinson was pleased with his side's performance against much higher class opposition.

"There are a lot of positives to take out of the game," he said. "We had six or seven trailists who considering they were playing together for the first time all put in good displays. We are hoping to invite them all back for the next game against Crawley Town on Saturday."

Hutch continued: "It was about fitness and not the result on Saturday, although I am concerned about the way we conceded four of the five goals they scored. We matched them pretty well in the first half, but then they made changes at the break and put on ten of their first team squad which not unnaturally ran us ragged, but I am pleased; we have to start somewhere."

Hutch, who was buoyed with the crowd of around 350, warned the supporters not to expect that he will be signing well known players. "The budget is minimal, but it is nice to see some good local youngsters in the team."

Dorchester Town opened their friendlies with a 2-0 defeat at Wimborne; the team made up mainly of triallists and youth players.
